SIDE ONE

29 July 1871
Hookfield Grove.
Epsom.

My dear Friend,

It will be a great treat to see you again; and there is nothing to prevent your coming down with Mitchelsh any part of the day, on Monday as I shall not stir from the place.

It is always interesting to me to see any of your countrymen, and a friend of yours will be welcome at all times. We have