LOCAL ITEMS

The oyster season begins this month.

The Hagerstown Fair will be held on October 11, 12, 13 and 14.

The Pipe Creek M. P. Church will not be reopened on Sunday. The reopening will be delayed for two weeks.

The long looked for Acts of Assembly for 1910 have arrived at the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court.

Monday, September 5th, will be Labor Day and a legal holiday.

The First Regiment Band gave a much enjoyed musical concert on the park on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Norman F. Grabill, of Union Bridge, has enlisted in the U. S. Army.

We have received the prize list and catalogue of the Hagerstown Fair Association.

We have received a very pretty postal from Mr. Simon P. Weaver who, with his wife and grandson, is spending his vacation at Ocean Grove, N. J.

Mr. Charles Swinderman has begun the erection of a two-story, brick dwelling house on his lot on George street which he recently purchased from the Nelson estate.

Miss Addie V. Waddell and Mr. Jessie L. E. Frizzell, both of near Taylorsville, this county, were married on August 25, 1910, near Englar, this county, by Elder S. E. Englar.

Several members of the Salvation Army from Frederick, Md., held services on Monday night on Main street, near the railroad station. They attracted quite a crowd that quietly listened to them.

Mr. Mark R. Snider has purchased through Michael E. Wash, Esq., attorney, the property of the late Daniel D. Hesson at Harney, this county, from Mr. John D. Hesson, trustee, for the sum of $800.00.

Mr. Oscar D. Gilbert has begun the erection of seven up-to-date dwelling houses on Bond street opposite the Church of the Brethren. They will be built of red brick with concrete block fronts and will have all modern conveniences.

Mr. Adolphus C. Rahter, formerly proprietor of the City Hotel, now the Main-Court Inn, of this city, was, on Monday last, presented by the grand jury of Baltimore city for conspiracy to defraud. There were six other persons presented for the same offense.

Mr. Edward W. Case has purchased from Mr. Frank W. Awalt, trustee, through Michael E. Walsh, Esq., solicitor, the Awalt property adjoining the Main-Court Inn. Mr. Case will use the property about October 1st., as a residence and real estate office.

We received a postal from Mr. George K. Schaeffer, of this city, announcing the safe arrival of himself and party at Dayton, Ohio. They consumed three days in making the trip "en auto" from this city to Dayton, Ohio. They are all well and enjoying the trip immensely.

Leister's Lutheran Church Sunday School and the Deer Park M. P. Church picnics were largely attended on Saturday last despite the dusty condition of the roads. Upon its return from the Deer Park M. P. Church picnic the Pleasant Valley Band gave a delightful concert at the railroad station.

On Saturday and Sunday last, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Yingling, of Liberty street, this city, had a family reunion. Those present were: Rev. W. C. Harden, wife and daughter, Mr. Wm. B. Nelson, wife and two children, Mr. F. Leroy Yingling, wife and two daughters, Mr. Guy L. Fringer, wife and two children, Mr. Walter Yingling and wife, and Misses Grace and Annie Yingling. They had a photograph made of the family.

Canada Hill Items.

Mr. Henry Myers, wife and son of Pleasant Valley, spent Sunday with Mr. Jacob Martin.

Miss Ruth Young, of near Uniontown, is spending a few days with her uncle, Mr. Edward Cummings.

Mr. Joseph B. Koontz and Mr. Noah Brown are sick.

Mr. A. Koontz, of Hagerstown, spent Sunday with his son, Mr. Joseph B. Koontz, of this place.

A jolly crowd from this vicinity went to Gettysburg on Sunday last. Those who made the trip were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cummings, Mrs Effie Wantz and Paul Fitze, of this place; and Mrs. J. Brand, of New Jersey. The roads were very dusty but they enjoyed the trip very much.

Daniel Items.

Miss M. E. Gillies, who has been spending the summer with Miss Stella Shipley, has gone to Monrovia, Frederick county, to take charge of a school for the coming year.

Mrs. N. J. Shipley, of Baltimore, visited friends and relatives in this vicinity last week.

Mr. J. Bibb Mills, attorney for the anti-saloon league of Maryland, will be at Ebenezer M. E. Church on Sunday night next, September 4th. It is hoped all persons interested in the cause will be present to hear him.

Mrs. Maggie Brandenburg and children, of Baltimore, have been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Conaway.

Mrs. Amanda Reckard, of Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Leah Penn.

We regret to say that the residence of Mr. John A. Snider is to be sold and that Mr. Snider will accompany his son, Mr. Chas. Snider, to Washington Court House, Ohio his future home. Mr. Snider has lived in the village so long he has become a fixture, and many friends regret the change.

Melrose Items

A machine, known in some localities as a "Hurdy Gurdy" music machine, passed through here last week. It was drawn by a horse, the music being produced through the agency of a gasoline engine. The music was good, but the Italian, not receiving many nickles, did not tarry here.

Mr. Jesse Leese, of Pleasant Hill, dropped in to see your correspondent and favored us with some choice music. Come again.

A very enjoyable wedding was solemnized on Sunday morning last. The contracting parties were Mr. George E. Baumgardner and Miss Emma G. Weaver, of Manchester district. They were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Lau, and then spent the day at bride's and the groom's homes. Among those who wished the happy pair happiness and prosperity were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. J. T Baumgardner, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yingling, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Leese, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Monath, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Folk, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Black, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Black, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day, of Baltimore; Henry Dherit, Charles Gilbert, Wesley Shaffer, Elenora Shorb, Wesley Monath, Maurice Black, Francis Black and Etta Redding.

Talk about Melrose being a business place, there wasn't five minutes during the day, and the greater part of the night last week that the rumble of heavy wagons did not disturb us. It was the time of unloading fertilizer at the station here and there were nearly a dozen carloads of it.

On Monday we saw on exhibition at Hoffacker's store a turnip, raised by Mrs. John Block, that reminded us of the pumpkin which Peter Peter Pumpkin Eater once owned. It weighed 5 pounds and 6 ounces.

Those who visited at Mr. and Mrs. Theo. S. B. Fridinger's, on Sunday last were: Miss Viola Caltrider, of Maple Grove; Mr. and Mrs. John Houck, of Hanover, Pa; Mrs. John Greenholtz, and sons, Currin and Earl, Mrs. Edward Snyder and daughters, Edith and Annie, and Mr. and Mrs. Jacob H. Zepp, of Millers.

DEATH'S DOINGS

William Blizzard.

William Blizzard, a well known resident of this vicinity who has, for the past fifty years, led a wandering life through this and adjoining counties, died last week at the county home, aged about 90 years, and his remains were interred in the burying grounds on the premises.

Mrs. Lucinda Crouse.

Mrs. Lucinda Crouse, widow of the late Jesse B. Crouse, of Mt. Pleasant, this connty, died on Wednesday at the residence of her son-in-law, John S. Patrick, No. 541 North Mount street, Baltimore, Md.

The funeral services were held today, Friday, at 2.30 P. M., and the interment was in Loudon Park Cemetery, Baltimore.

Mrs John A. Snider.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Snider, wife of Mr. John Adam Snider, died at her residence, at Daniel, Monday night, Aug. 22nd, after a short illness. The funeral services were held at the home on Thursday morning. Rev. H. C. Hall conducted the services, after which the remains were interred in Ebenezer cemetery. Mrs. Snider was a very faithful member of Ebenezer church and will be greatly missed there as well as in her home. Her jovial nature and sterling qualities won for her very many friends. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the lonely husband in this great sorrow of his declining years.

Alfred G Dell.

Mr. Alfred G. Dell, a former resident of this city, died on Monday at the State Sanatorium, Frederick county, Md., aged 65 years.

The deceased was formerly engaged in the lumber and coal business in this city where Smith & Reifsnider now conduct business, but left here over 20 years ago and has resided ever since in Baltimore. He was unmarried and leaves but two near relatives: Mrs. Charles Robert Miller, wife of Mr. C. R. Miller, one of the vice-presidents of the Fidelity and Deposit company of Baltimore, a neice, who is now traveling in Europe for the Frank Leslie Magazine; and Mr. J. Edwin Weaver, of this city, a first cousin.

He was a quiet, modest and refined gentleman and leaves a host of friends who sincerely regret his death.

His remains were brought to this city on Tuesday morning and after funeral services, on Wednesday, at the residence of Mr. George W. Miller, conducted by Rev. Harold M. Rider, a former pastor of Centenary M. E. Church, of this city, were interred in the family lot in the Westminster Cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Joseph W. Smith, John L. Reifsnider, Jr., E. O. Grimes, Denton S. Gehr, Oscar D. Gilbert and George R. Gehr. Messrs. F. A. Sharrer & Son were funeral directors.

A Silver Tea.

The "Silver Tea" given at Ascension Rectory on Saturday evening last, was not only highly successful from the usual standpoint of a church entertainment, but as a social function as well. The attendance was very large, both of the members and friends of the parish in Westminster, and also of summer visitors to the city. Among the ladies who assisted Mrs. Gibson were Mrs. Edwin W. Shriver, Mrs. Frank Fouke, Mrs. Charles Capito Smith aud Miss Kemp, of Baltimore, and Misses Dorothy A. Albaugh, Frances Guyon Seabrook, Mary Billingslea and Camille Bonotte. The ever-popular "grab-bag" was in charge of Misses Josephine Reifsnider and Virginia Carmichael. A musical programme was rendered by Mrs. Elmer Bacon, of Washington, Miss Frances G. Seabrook and Miss Azalea Shipley.

Another entertainment of the same kind, and for the same purpose, will be given at the rectory on Friday, Sept. 9, and the music for the occasion will be furnished by the Westminster Orchestra.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT CAUSES THE DEATH OF MRS. WM. H. BROWN.

Mrs. Mary Brown, wife of Mr. William H. Brown, residing at "The Pool" near this city, was so severely burned on Monday morning last that she died from her injuries within ten hours afterwards.

She had risen early in the morning in order to prepare her husband's breakfast, and while engaged with her cooking, took hold of a hot stove lifter, using her apron to protect her hand. The lifter, being very hot from being allowed to remain on the stove too long, ignited her apron and the flames ignited a pan of liniment containing turpentine which was sitting on the rear of the cook stove. The burning liniment flew all over Mrs. Brown's body and terribly burned her from head to foot. Her husband hearing her cries ran down stairs and seized the only available thing, a coat, and wrapped it around her head, thus saving her hair from being burned. Her entire face, the front of her neck, arms, hands, breast, abdomen and limbs were terribly burned.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Yingling, was in the 39th. year of her age. She is survived by her husband and eight children, the oldest of whom is sixteen years and the youngest 15 months. The funeral services were held at her late home on Wednesday at 2 P. M., Rev. Harold M. Rider officiating, and the interment was in the Westminster cemetery.

The pallbearers were Messrs. James W. Hook of F., Reuben Humbert, Wm. M. Stansbury, Edward Yingling, Dohnea C. Nygren, and Wm. D. Reese.

Messrs. F. A. Sharrer and Son were funeral directors.

VISIT TO I. O. M. LODGES

The Baltimore Sunday American of the 27th ult., says:

On Thursday evening Grand Architect Michael Kollinger and Grand Secretary Elmer Bernhard paid an official visit to Union Mills Lodge No. 61, at Union Mills, Carroll County. The Grand Lodge officers were received with all the honors of the order and remarks were made by Brothers D. P. Frock, Charles W. Koontz, W. R. Nusbaum, Harry L. Cratin and District Deputy Grand Architect George W. Bankert, after which the Grand Architect spoke on the good the order has done during the past term. The lodge is one of the flourishing lodges of Carroll County, owning their own hall, which has a seating capacity of 300 in the main auditorium and a fine lodge room on the second floor. Their increase during the present term was 16. The Grand Architect and Grand Secretary returned to Westminster after the meeting and the next night paid an official visit to Snydersburg Lodge, No. 60, at Snydersburg, Carroll County, where a delegation of 40 members greeted them and after remarks were made by the Grand Lodge officers, Pastmaster John A. Coker gave an interesting history of the Lodge, which was much appreciated by those present. Remarks were also made by Jacob N. Brown, Joseph H. Lippy, George A. Leister, John W. Yingling, Edmond Reed, J. R. Smith, J. L. Breitweiser and others, after which refreshments were served. The Grand Lodge officers after being the guests of Past Master William Ruby over night, started for Uniontown Lodge No. 57, and were met at Westminster by Grand Treasurer Robert Lutz and Past Master Jeff Mehring, as a committee of one from the Lodge. After spending a few hours in visiting some of the members of Westminster Lodge No. 41, the brothers started for Uniontown and were received at the session at night with a large delegation of members. This lodge has also lately bought their hall and are in a flourishing condition. Remarks were made by Guy Cookson, Jeff Mehring, and the treat of the evening was by Past Grand Architect Jesse F. Billmyer, who gave an interesting history of the lodge from its infancy to the present date. After spending Sunday at Westminster, the Grand Lodge officers returned home, well pleased with the reception they received and the good work that the lodges have been doing.

MANCHESTER ITEMS

The members of Emanuel Lutheran Sunday school, of this place, had their outing in the grove of Mr. Jacob Zepp, north of town. The most of the members enjoyed a straw ride on large wagons with a number of private teams. The day was ideal and the amusements enjoyed by all. The merry-go-round was quite a source of pleasure so that they had a general good time.

Dr. Harry Preston, who was practicing at Harney, and who has taken part of the Hoffacker home on Foundry Avenue, on Tuesday while helping to unload his furniture, slipped from the wheel of the wagon and broke several of his ribs, which has put him on his oars.

Mrs. Schilke, who lived with her son two miles south of Millers, enjoying good health, arose on Monday morning as well as usual, ate her breakfast and then took her seat on the front porch of the home, while her daughter-in-law was busy with her domestic duties, indulging in occasional conversation with her. The daughter-in-law went to a near-by field to see her husband. She returned to the house in about ten minutes and found the old lady lying on the ground covered with blood. She was taken into the house and a physician called but life had fled. She had had a hemorrhage and died. She was aged 87 years. Her remains were laid away to rest in the Lineboro cemetery on Wednesday, Rev. Lau officiating. Mr. W. L. F. Bergman had charge of the funeral.
