WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

JOS. D. BROOKS, Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 1910.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS,

HON. WILLIAM B. BAKER,

OF HARFORD COUNTY.

In the leading editorial in its issue of July 15, 1910, the Democratic Advocate in speaking of its party says :

"Another thing that the leaders have omitted to do is to lay down a positive policy to guide the party in event of victory. A source of our weakness, heretofore, has been that the Democratic party was simply a party of opposition as it told the people only in general terms its proposed policy."

What do you think of Teddy, anyway? Isn't he a "buster"?

The New York Republicans cleaned up their house this week and they will be in fine fighting trim in November. Keep your eye on Teddy.

This was a Democratic year until Teddy got into the fight. Now it is different. Always Democratic until some of the Republicans "jast go and spoil the game."

If the Democrats of Maryland are so all-fired anxious to get rid of bosses what is the matter with putting the Hon. J. F. C. Talbott, the greatest boss in the State, out of commission ?

Our Democratic friends in Maryland are very much afraid the Republicans will inject "local" issues into the present campaign. They are scared to death everytime the lid is raised. The people of the State need no information about the acts of the State machine. They know enough already.

Hon. William B. Baker is entitled to the vote of every Republican in this county and those of a great many Democrats. The father of free rural delivery should be given hearty support. Can you name one single thing the Hon. J. F. C. Talbott has done for this county ? If so, name it.

Protection to American industries has produced a demand for labor in the large cities and all manufacturing centers. This labor has to be fed and as it increases in number the demands for food produced by the farmer will rise in price. The Democratic party has never produced a demand for labor. Then why should a farmer vote the Domocratic ticket ?

Hon. William Jennings Bryan has refused to support Hon. James C. Dahlman, the Democratic nominee for Governor of Nebraska, becaues of the latter's position on the local option question. If Dahlman is elected our Democratic friends will claim it to be a victory for their national policies. What are the policies of the Democratic party? The Democratic Advocate says it has none.

Senator Rayner, who is a lawyer and has never been engaged in any commercial or agricultural pursuits. is advocating the adoption of a tariff law similar to the Wilson law. As the repeal of the latter law and the adoption of the Dingley tariff law produced so much prosperity among our farmers that the legal fraternity has been almost put out of business we suspect brother Rayher's sympathy is with the latter.

Hon. John Walter Smith is a business man and understands the needs of the country. He voted for a duty on lumber and some other things.

Hon. Isador Rayner, our other Democratic senator, is a lawyer and has never been engaged in any commercial or agricultural pursuit, and, therefore, knows nothing about the needs of the business men of the country. He voted against a duty on lumber and nearly everything else.

Which one knows what the country needs ?

When the Payne-Aldrich bill was before Congress some of the Democratic members voted to protect articles produced in their districts, or articles in which some of their constituents were interested, but when the bill came up for final vote they voted against the bill as a whole, knowing full well that the Republicans had enough votes to pass it. After the adjournment of Congress these same members went back to their constituents and told some of them how they had voted to protect their products, and others how they had voted against the robber tariff bill of the Republican party.

In a letter declining to support Dahlman, the Democratic nominee for governor of Nebraska, Hon. Wm. J. Bryan says :

"In speaking for the state ticket, I shall not be able to present any arguments in favor of the election of Mr. Dahlman. His position on the liquor question makes that impossible. I regret this exceedingly, for he has been a political and personal friend for 20 years, and it would give me pleasure to speak for him if I could indorse the policy for which he stands, but he has chosen to make the liquor question the paramount issue, and makes his appeal on that issue."

Is Mr. Bryan an "insurgent" or a "progressive"? Is the whiskey question a local one in Nebraska and a national one in Maine ? What is a Democrat, anyway ?

The Baltimore Morning Sun in a leading editorial of September 22nd said :

"Democrats of the South ! Do not imagine vain things. Do not suppose that the election in Maine or the selection of Foss in Massachusetts, or the obvious Republican discords and disaffections necessarily imply confidence in the Democratic party or in the Democratic statesmen. We are in the midst of a political revolution, and revolutions do not run backward. Unless they rise to the new issues and victories the Democrats may gain, will be but temporary. Insurgency in Republican ranks is mostly Democratic seed in full bloom, and the whole Republican party gives signs of going Insurgent to reap the harvest. Besides, the independent voter is now abroad in the land. Surely this is the the hour of Democratic opportunity. To your tents, O Israel !"

In other words, the Democrats must not get too gay and think they are just going to carry every thing simply because the Republicans are cleaning house preparatory to the coming contest. The Republican party is full of vitality and will have its armor bright and shining in November.

When a soldier is granted an original or increase of pension the Pension Department always notifies the Congressman, representing the district in which the soldier lives, of the fact. In a vast majority of cases the Congressman knows nothing about the pension claims. We have been informed, however, that as soon as a pensioner, residing in this district, is granted a pension our present Congressman immediately writes him a letter which is so worded as to leave the pensioner under the impression that Mr. Talbott got it for him or her. Some of Mr. Talbott's friends take every opportunity to tell the old soldiers of this district that he is a great friend to the soldiers. Suppose he has aided the soldiers, is that any reason he should be re-elected ? He gets $7,500 and a private secretary, and we think that is pretty good pay for the services rendered. Mr. Baker was just as great, if not a greater, friend of the soldiers as Mr. Talbott. Acting as a pension agent is all very well and nobody is complaining about it, but we want some one other than a pension agent to represent this district in Congress. We want a business man and not a professional politician.

After deliberating 92 hours, the fourth jury in the case of William F. Downs, charged with the larceney of $67,000 of Baltimore city's money, was dismissed by Judge Duffy.

Accounts as to how the jury stood on the final ballot, given by the jurors themselves, vary.

Mr. Harry B. Wolf, associate counsel for Downs, secured the names of seven of the jurors to a statement declaring that the final ballot was 11 to 1 for acquittal.

Two detectives from headquarters are said to have been detailed to investigate the movements of two of the jurors.

State's Attorney Owens says he will try Downs again, and, if necessary, again, or until the former clerk is either convicted or acquitted.

IN MEMORIAM.

MYERS.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear mother, Catherine Myers, who died one year ago, September 27th, 1909.

God gave to us a mother true as steel,
And oh, how glad our hearts did feel
To see how noble and how grand
She would for right and justice stand.

She did her best by every one,
And everywhere true friendship won.
But God in His wisdom, kind and just,
Called our mother away from us.

The blow was hard and leaves us sad,
But Heaven's hearts are now made glad.
And we will strive to live always
That we may meet again some day.

By her son and wife, E. H. Myers.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
In her lonely silent grave.

How long she struggled against disease
That baffled skill and care,
How long she lingered, racked with pain,
And suffering hard to bear.

Rest dear mother, thy work is o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more ;
A faithful mother so true and kind,
A better mother we could not find.
Sleep on, dear mother, sweetly sleep,
We needed you but God knew best.

By her daughter, Mrs. D. D. Myers.

Flowers may wither,
Flowers may die,
Evelyone may forget her
But never will I.

By her granddaughter, E. M. S.

Dearest mother thou hast left us,
And our loss we deeply feel,
But 'tis God that has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.
Yet again we hope to meet thee
When in Heaven in joy to greet thee.
Where no farewell tears are shed.

By her son and wife, U. H. Myers.
