Dear Sir,

We are today in receipt of a note from Mr Wistar and in accordance with his directions we have sent a package of letters for your party, to the above address.

We have also to acknowledge receipt of your letter dated Salzbourg the 23rd instant, but we have not yet received a new credit on your account from our Philadelphia friends, and so soon as we hear from them we shall have pleasure in advising you.

We found enclosed in Mr W. Morris' letter, your credit for £2.000 for which we thank you, but as you do not ask us
