1872 August Caspar Morris Lucretia Letter

Haverford Aug 5th 1872.

My Dear Doctor

Ever since you left I have been intending to write to you, but now month has past and it has not been accomplished, not that I did not want to, but somehow I have put it off and now it has been so long I hardly remember what all has happened that would be of interest to you. In the first place I guess you remember our cousin Sam Coates who was going in consumption when you left, he died last October at Colorado Springs near Denver. Passing away as quietly
