1872 August Cooper Morris Eugenia Jones

SIDE TWO

He is feeling the bracing air of Scotland so helpful to him and almost lives out of doors. My sister came to London while I was here and we are having a charming visit together — She will sail from Liverpool on the "Calabria" of Sep 24th and I expect to sail on the 28th also from Liverpool, on the "Iris" of Moss & Co's Line.

I saw Mrs Betts in her own home, and she was hoping for a visit from you both.

I am very happy among my husband's friends, and yet now I begin to count the weeks when I shall start on the homeward voyage —

I hope that your party all are well — and that you have had no interruptions in your journeyings —

I shall always remember your visit to Cairo with the greatest pleasure, and I hope that we may meet you all again in America some time.

Give my kindest regards to each one of your party, and believe me,

Yours very sincerely

Ada S. Grant.

My address will be Methlick Villa, Westfield Terrace Aberdeen — until the latter part of September — and at Liverpool we shall stop at the Washington Hotel.
