Robt. A. Carroll, Sykesville, and Etta Lee Selby, Baltimore.

MANCHESTER ITEMS

Since my last, our section has had quite a taste of winter unexpectedly. The snow storm that swept the eastern coast made its appearance in little flurries on Thursday evening that after nightfall became the real thing driven by a strong N. W. wind, so that by morning we had snowbound streets and pavements covered with drifts two and three feet deep, while the roads leading from town were blocked. Rural carriers were unable to make their trip and the general public was called upon to shovel open the highways for travel. A rising temperature had much to do with the rapidly disappearing snow that was absorbed by the dry earth and which has since showed some improvement in the water supply.

The members of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F. enjoyed a feast of good things at their meeting on Tuesday evening on the occasion of a visit from the grand officers of the Rebekah assembly of Maryland, as follows: Mrs. Susan Jones, President; Mrs. Margaret Groom, Vice-president; Mrs. Kate Stansbury, Teasurer; Mrs. Emma Kean, Marshal; Mrs. Margaret Mumma, Conductor, who occupied the respective chairs during the initiation of four candidates which was most beautifully done and highly appreciated by the members who, no doubt, have caught on to many of the up-to-date features. Mrs. Keller, N. G., then took the chair and proceeded to ''new business' where she declared a recess as the committee on refreshments had everything in readiness. Sociability was soon supreme and the groups around the little tables were then served with ham sandwiches and coffee, followed by a second course of gelatine in the Rebekah colors of pink and green, with a bountiful supply of cake and coffee. Order again called, speech making was indulged in to the pleasure of all. The midnight hour was well in sight when the reluctant farewells and good nights were said.

The same apathetic feeling that was prominent throughout the campaign prevailed during election day so that the officers had a hard time to do nothing. In precinct 1 out of a registration of 412 there was 151 stay-at-homes, while No. 2 had about the same proportion.

The friends of Mr. John L. Wink had a message of his death at his home in Baltimore on Monday last. His remains were brought to the home of his brother, Mr. Jacob L. Wink on Tuesday morning, from whence they were laid to rest in a family lot, Rev. Lau officiating. Mr. W. was one of our boys. His boyhood and younger manhood were spent here as a cigar maker. During his latter life he was in the hotel business until failing health caused him to retire. He leaves a widow, and three brothers.

Mrs. Wm. N. Masenheimer royally entertained the members of the sewing circle on Thursday evening while the elements without were holding full sway, which all fully realized when returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Rittase, of Baltimore were here on Tuesday among friends, Mrs. R. extending her visit.

Mrs. Dr. J. H. Sherman entertained the members of The Sunshine on Monday evening at her home on N. Main street.

The members of the Rebekah Lodge will give an entertainment in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Thanksgiving night. The cast of characters are good and promises of a good evening's pastime.

A number of our people are taking a peep at the aviation.

On Sunday morning Mr. Lambert, of near Hampstead, and Miss Newcomer, of the Lineboro section, were met in the waiting room of the Reformed parsonage on Sunday morning, at 9 A. M., by Dr. T. S. Land, who, in the presence of the family, united them in the bonds of holy wedlock. After receiving congratulations they left for the bride's home where a reception was held.

The interpretation of King Henry IV., by Mr. Williams was unusually fine. It was wonderfully refreshing to all lovers of the spoken drama. His rendering of Falstaff's rollicking thrusts of humor and pathos won the admiration of those who could not enjoy the deeper parts of the play.

FIRE AT CRANBERRY.

Two Barnes, Dwelling House, Outbuildings and Cow Burned. Firemen of this city responded and saved Steam Mill and other buildings.

A destructive fire broke out in the barn on the property of the Consolidated Public Utilities Company at Cranberry station on the Western Maryland Railroad, near this city, at 8.30 o'clock last night. The fire burned fiercely and, aided by a high wind, swept up the hill toward the large dwelling house which it very soon consumed. The flying sparks from the two burning buildings set fire to the strip of woods on the east of the premises and the sparks from the latter set fire to the barn of Mr. John Otterbaugh, situated around the bend of the road, and it was soon destroyed.

The Westminster Fire Department, with the assistance of Mr. H. H. Harbaugh, of this city, hurried to the scene of the fire and soon had a good stream of water from the pumping station playing on the large steam roller flour mill and other buildings, all of which were saved.

In order to save his fat hogs from being burned Mr. John Otterbaugh, whose barn was destroyed, cut their throats and dragged them from the burning pen.

Mr. R. L. Leatherwood lost a cow which was in the large barn where the fire started, and Mr. John Moser, who farms the place for the Consolidated Company, lost a lot of rye and rye straw. The fire also destroyed the hog house, chicken house, and all the chickens in it; wash house, and in fact all the other small buildings near the dwelling house. The dwelling house was unoccupied.

It was impossible to ascertain the loss before going to press, but we have been informed that it will be nearly covered by insurance.

A great crowd from this city and the surrounding country gathered at the scene, some coming from New Windsor by automobile. About 15 automobiles were used to carry people to the scene.

BACHMAN'S VALLEY

Sunday School at Bixler's U. B. Church on Sunday at 9.30 A. M. Don't forget to be present and bring the children along as the Sunday School is the place for them. TUESDAY'S ELECTION.

At the election on Tuesday the Democratic party succeeded, through the fight among the members of the Republican party in some of the larger states, in getting control of the House of Representatives by a majority of 25. The Senate, however, remains Republican. In Maryland the Democrats carried five out of the six congressional districts, making a net gain for them of two congressman. The state vote, however, shows that this state is very close on all national issues.

He was for many years a representative of the firm of Austin Nicholls Company, New York. Mr. Winchester is descended from one of the oldest families of Maryland. Besides his widow (Mrs. Katie E. Winchester), he is survived by six children (Mrs. E. R. Stewart and Messrs. A. Girvin, Edmund W., Pere Seegar and Raymond Winchester and Miss Catherine Winchester.)

The deceased was the youngest daughter of the late G. W. Favorite, of Creagerstown, Maryland. Her husband, the late M. J. Eichelberger, died about 14 years ago.

BENJAMIN F. CROUSE

Mr. Benjamin F. Crouse, Insurance Commissioner of Maryland, died at his residence in this city, at 4 P. M., on November 8th, 1910, aged 56 years. He had been in ill health for more than a year and during the summer spent a couple of months at Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore. After his return home his condition at times showed marked improvement and only a few weeks ago he was able to take drives, but relapses occurred at intervals. On Sunday last he was taken with acute pneumonia and soon lapsed into a state of unconsciousness, in which he continued until the end came.

Mr. Crouse was a graduate of Western Maryland College class of 1873. After his graduation he began the study of law with the late Judge John E. Smith and Col. Wm. P. Maulsby, in this city, and was admitted to the bar of Carroll county in 1875. He began the practice of his profession in the office of the late Judge William P. Maulsby, with whom he was associated for several years. Early in his career he was elected a member of the House of Delegates from Carroll county and in that body manifested the qualities which subsequently brought him into prominence in the politics of this county and of the state.

Following his legislative experience, he was appointed by Dr. Frank T. Shaw, then clerk of the Circuit Court, a deputy in that office. Upon the election of Dr. William N. Martin as clerk of the Court, Mr. Crouse was appointed chief deputy and upon the death of Dr. Martin he was appointed Clerk of the Court until the next general election, when he was nominated and elected clerk of the Circuit Court for a term of six years. At the expiration of his term of office Mr. Crouse formed a copartnership with Mr. John M. Roberts, son of the late Hon. Charles B. Roberts, and very soon gained a leading place at the bar.

Activity in Politics

When Dr. J. W. Hering was first elected, in 1899, comptroller of the treasury, he appointed Mr. Crouse as his chief clerk, and while still filling that office he was elected state insurance commissioner in 1900, a position in which he achieved a national reputation. In the meantime he practiced the legal profession with ample success. The Messrs. Roberts and Crouse were counsel for the Western Maryland Railway for Carroll county for several years. In 1892 Mr. Crouse created a sensation in the Democratic convention in Carroll county by bitterly denouncing ''Gorman and Gormanism,'' which he declared ''denied the rights of the people.'' About that time he became the acknowledged leader of the Democratic party in this county and continued in that relation to the end of his life. He dominated every convention of his party in this county and dictated its action. It was characteristic of Mr. Crouse that he never deceived an aspirant for political favor in his party with false promises. He was for many years a member of the Democratic State Central Committee and chairman of the county central committee.

Mr. Crouse was a member of Grace Lutheran Church, of this city, and a member of the Church Council. He was a past master of Door to Virtue Lodge No 46, A. F. and A. M., a member of Charity Lodge Knights of Pythias, Westminster Lodge I. O. M., the Royal Arch Chapter of Masons, Westminster Council No. 1537 Royal Arcanum, a member of the board of directors of the Public Utilities Company of Westminster and held many other positions of trust and confidence. He was twice married. His first wife died about 14 years ago, leaving three children (Ira E. Crouse, Benjamin Franklin Crouse, of this city, and Miss Helen Crouse, now of Philadelphia.) His second wife, who was Miss Carrie Stouch, of this city, survives him but has no children. He is also survived by two sisters and one brother (Misses Laura and Ella N. Crouse and Oliver P. Crouse, Jr., of Philadelphia.) He was a son of the late Ira E. Crouse, of this city.

His grandfather was the late William Crouse, and the late Rev. William A. Crouse was his uncle. William S. Crouse, former superintendent of the schools of Caroline county, and Rev. Thomas O. Crouse, a prominent clergyman of the Methodist Protestant Church are his cousins.

The funeral services, which were largely attended, were held this morning at 11 o'clock, at his late residence, the Revs. P. H. Miller, T. H. Lewis, H. L. Elderdice and D. L. Greenfield, officiating, and the interment was in the Westminster Cemetery.

The active pallbearers were: Prof. William R. McDaniel, Dr. George E. Baughman and Messrs George R. Gehr, Fred D. Miller, Charles E. Goodwin and Charles V. Wantz.

The honorary pallbearers were: The board of directors of the Union Nation Bank of Westminster, of which Mr. Crouse was a member, the members of the Carroll county Bar Association. Judges Thomas, Brashears and Forsythe, the Messrs George W. Albaugh, T. Herbert Shriver and George M. Parke, and Prof. James E. Green, of Towson, deputy Insurance Commissioner of Maryland.

Messrs F. A. Sharrer and Son were funeral directors. The floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.
