UNIONTOWN ITEMS

The trustees of the M. P. cemetery have had a cement wall built in front of the yard, which adds very much to the appearance of the place and makes it more convenient for the hitching of horses.

Last week Mrs. Deborah Segafoose had her house very tastily painted.

The meeting which had been in progress for two weeks, at the Bethel, closed on Sunday.

Reserved tickets for the entertainment on Thanksgiving evening can be had at L. F. Eckard's store. During the evening pop corn and fudge will be for sale between acts. The play will be repeated on Saturday evening 26, at Walden's Hall, Middleburg.

Miss Fannie Peters, of Baltimore, is staying with Mrs. Missouri Routson, for a time. Mrs. Routson is gradually regaining the use of her limbs.

Miss Annie Row is home from a long visit to relatives about Creagerstown.

Will Fair, of Atlantic City, visited J. W. Rodkey's this week.

Wm. Myers, of Westminster, spent Sunday with C. Edgar Myers and family.

Mrs. Thomas F. Myers and little son are spending several weeks with her sister and brothers in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Zollickoffer entertained a company of New Windsor and Uniontown friends on Friday evening.

Howard Hiteshue is enjoying the hunting season at Snader Devilbiss' this week.

Howard Myers and Will Howard, of Baltimore started from the latter place on Saturday 2 P. M., for a walk to Uniontown, arriving here before midnight. On Sunday they concluded to allow an engine to do the puffing on their return trip.

Mrs. Mary Otto is spending some time here with her cousin, Ezra Caylor.

Mrs. Lanie Shaw is visiting relatives in Frederick.

Mr. Wm. H. McCollum's property which was offered for sale here last Saturday, was not sold.

Mr. John Graham's home was the scene of a very pleasant event on Tuesday evening. A cousin, Miss Mary Swarber, of Johnsville, has been spending several weeks there, so in her honor some forty young folks were invited to come and have a real good time as they always do in that hospitable home.

On Saturday, Mr. Harry Fogle, of Detour, Arthur Naille, Miss Mary Duvall of Dennings and Miss Mary Baughman spent the day at Gettysburg.

Services are being held each night this week in M. P. church.

The supply of water in our place is getting very low. So many of the wells have gone dry, making it very inconvenient for many of the families who have to haul or carry quite a distance.

PLEASANT VALLEY ITEMS

FLYING JUNK HURT TWO MEN.

John P. Lawrence and James Stevenson, Western Maryland Railway brakemen, were badly hurt Tuesday afternoon in Hagerstown, by an explosion of dynamite that was being used to blow some old car wheels and heavy casting into junk.

One of the fragments of steel was hurled nearly a half mile and crashed through the window of a small building near the roundhouse in the Western Maryland yards, where the men were working.

The very grave seemed to yawn before Robert Madsen, of West Burlington, Iowa, when, after seven weeks in the hospital, four of the best physicians gave him up. Then was shown the marvelous curative power of Electric Bitters. IN MEMORIAM.

GARNER.—Near Lineboro, Md., Nov. 9th, 1910, Gladys May Garner, daughter of John J. and Lydia M. Garner, aged 5 years, 2 months and 19 days.

Hour by hour we saw her fade,
And swiftly sink away,
Yet often in our hearts we prayed,
That she might longer stay.

Farewell, dear Gladys, thou has left us,
We thy loss most deeply feel,
But 'tis God who has bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

We were weeping around her pillow
For we knew that she must die.
It was night within my bosom,
It was night within the sky.

We have given love's last token,
We have parted back her hair,
From off the marble forehead,
And left the last kiss there.

By her Parents.

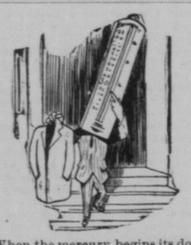

Her little crib is empty,
Her playthings laid aside,
Our home is sad and lonely
For I have no sister now.

By her little brother, Ralph.

Little Gladys was our darling,
Pride of all our hearts at home,
But an Angel came and whispered,
Little Gladys do come home.

By her aunt, M. A. R.
