My dear Brother

I have got home & though sadly tired I must write a few lines in answer to your kind letter. I have been reading your letter to my dear wife and she is very thankful to you Mrs Morris & Miss Hetherington worth for so kindly remembering her. She has been suffering for years from a cough which has ended in a thickening of the bronchial so that she cannot get sufficient air to keep up a healthy circulation and any little effort of body or mind

Pray let me have a line to say when we may look out for you – i.e. if practicable. My dear wife joins me in every expression of thankful and believe me

Very sincerely yrs

J. Latham

Excuse haste
