DEFERRED LOCALS

Lodge Happenings.

Springfield Lodge, No. 134, of Sykesville, held a large and enthusiastic meeting on November 3. This lodge has just completed and moved into their hall after having rebuilt the building and refurnished its lodgeroom, making the building much more attractive than its old one and its lodgeroom one of the best adapted, most comfortable in the state. It is to be congratulated upon its success in carrying out its plans and upon its ownership of such a splendid home. The meeting last Thursday night was a special one, being a complimentary dinner to the ladies that have assisted the memership in their various enterprises, and notwithstanding the snow storm that prevailed a large number were present to enjoy the splendid dinner served by the caterer, 148 persons being seated at the tables which were arranged in a hollow square. Prior to the dinner lodge met in regular session and received a number of applications for membership. Special District Deputy Grand Master J. Edward Krob, of District No. 6, was present and encouraged them in the work, as also did Noble Grand E. M. Walmsley, of Center Lodge No. 40, of Ellicott City, and J. Wilson Talbott, district deputy grandmaster of Center Lodge No. 40.

Colanthe Lodge, No. 133, at Union Bridge, held one of the best attended meetings for some months on Monday night of last week, the occasion being a visit of grand lodge officers James M. Hendrix, deputy grand keeper of records and seal, and John F. Thomas grand master-at-arms. After addresses by the visiting brothers, Brother J. C. Hartman gave an interesting talk upon the work of Colanthe Lodge and how to improve present conditions, and suggested that each member present express himself as to his willingness to do what he could to increase interest in the work of the order. The meeting then resolved itself into an old time experience meeting, and some timely remarks were made, every member present responding briefly, pledging renewed and continued devotion to the work of building up his lodge and the order. After adjournment all repaired to the Western Maryland Hotel, where Brother A. A. Haines and his estimable wife had prepared to receive the members of the lodge and their visitors with true Maryland hospitality. A color scheme had been worked out in the handsome decorations of the tables and dining rooms, red being the predominating color. Large bouquets of chrysanthemums adorning the tables added much to the general effect. The substantial and attractive menu was greatly enjoyed by the boys and their friends and each one felt that it was good to be there. These social sessions are the means of helping the members to get better acquainted and to further the real fraternal work for which our order stands.

Tuesday night of last week was an occasion of especial interest to Taneytown Lodge No. 36, at Taneytown, this county, by reason of the visit of Deputy Grand Keeper of Records and Seal James M. Hendrix and Grand Master-at-arms John F. Thomas, representing the grand lodge and conveying a message of greeting from Grand Chancellor Reinhardt, who was unable to be present. The regular business of the lodge was transacted, and under the good of the order addresses were made by the visiting brothers, in which they pointed out the necessity of pushing forward after the colors of the order which are being carried to the front in every state in the Union as well as in foreign territory, so that it is now world wide in its scope and influence. Responses were made by a number of the members of the lodge, and after the closing exercises refreshments were served in abundance. An auction was held to dispose of the surplus supplies, and the highest bidders secured quantities of ham, butter, sandwiches, etc., to add to the home larder. Taneytown Lodge, No. 36, is one of the older lodges in the grand domain, and numbers among its members the most substantial citizens of the town and community. The membership are determined to add to their roster a number of names and there is a fine field from which to select their material.

On Friday night of last week the same officers, accompanied by other officers, visited Charity lodge of this city and delivered some addresses which were very much appreciated by all those present.

AN ENJOYABLE EVENT

We have had two local events this week in Union Bridge that ought not to be passed by unnoticed. The first was a most interesting lecture by Rev. E. P. Perry, of our church at Georgetown, Del., on "What I Observed in Egypt and the Holy Land," given on Tuesday night in the Methodist Protestant Church. Notwithstanding the opening of the lecture course at the college on the same night, we had a very good and appreciative audience. On Thursday evening in the lecture room we had a most unique celebration. Brother Robert O. Fuss, the superintendent of our Sunday School, and Jacob Gray, the superintendent of the Methodist Episcopal Sunday School, discovered that their birthday was on November 3. They decided that they would celebrate the same together and invite the officers, teachers, scholars and friends of the church to enjoy the eventful occasion with them. A committee of ladies decorated the church, prepared an excellent program, and provided refreshments, which was greatly enjoyed by a large number of people. A surprise birthday cake was brought out, and Rev. E. T. Read, an ex-pastor, said "he was instructed to cut it in half and hand to each of the distinguished guests his portion, provided they would tell the audience their age." They acquiesced in this arrangement and satisfied the curiosity of some of the more inquisitive. Rev. H. L. Hastings, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, took charge of the program, the closing feature of which was the singing of the following lines by all present to the tune of "Home Sweet Home."

Our father, we thank thee, that all the year through,
Thy mercies have blessed them with gifts ever new.
Our Father we pray Thee, be thou ever near,
And, O, wilt Thou give them a blessed new year.
Home, home, sweet, sweet home, etc.

J. McLANE BROWN, Pastor

UNION MILLS ITEMS

Mr. Ira G. Lawyer, who has been a sufferer from a complication of troubles since he was injured in an automobile accident last summer, was taken to a Baltimore hospital, on the 16th. inst., by Dr. G. L. Wetzel, for surgical treatment.

At the fall Communion service, held at St. Mary's Reformed church, Silver Run, last Sunday, the pastor of the church, Rev. S. C. Hoover, was assisted by Rev. Dr. G. W. Richards, of the theological seminary at Lancaster, Pa. The collection for benevolence, on the occasion, amounted to $103.

Mr. R. Nelson Koontz has returned to his mill property, near the village to take the place of his son Chas. Koontz, whose health would not permit him to remain in the mill, and the latter has moved into the house vacated by his father.

Dr. Wolf, a veterinary surgeon, has located in our town and occupies the house recently vacated by Thos. W. Kelly.

The ladies' mite society of Moorhead M. E. Church will hold a social in the school house on the evening of December 10, to which the public is invited.

TWO BARNS DESTROYED IN FREDERICK COUNTY

Over a Hundred Fine Horses and Cattle Burned in Night Blaze—Dr. Samuel Claggett and Mount O'Donnell Stock Farm Victims—Wind blows Sparks a Mile With Disastrous Results

Over 100 head of live stock, including 23 horses, were destroyed in two fires on Saturday night which burned two fine barns on the Merryland tract, in the southern part of Frederick county. The fire, the origin of which has not been learned, started on the farm of Dr. Samuel Claggett, near Petersville, and destroyed a large bank barn, a combination wagon shed and corn house and a sheep pen. Twelve horses four head of cattle and four or five hogs were burned. The flock of sheep and 26 head of cattle were saved. About 900 bushels of wheat, 125 barrels of corn, a quantity of hay and most of the farming utensils were burned.

The fire started about 9 o'clock. A high wind was blowing and carried sparks far across the country. In this way the barn of Mt. O'Donnell Stock Farm, owned by Charles Wertheimer, a prominent business man of Frederick, and situated about a mile from the Claggett farm, was ignited. The tenant's family were asleep and the fire was not discovered until it had made such headway that it was impossible to save much of the live stock, which included a lot of fine horses and an exceptionally fine herd of dairy cattle, many of them being thoroughbred Holstein-Fresians. Eleven horses, 39 cows and 35 sheep were destroyed. Three horses and two cows were saved, though the cows were badly burned. A silo nearly filled with ensilage; a cornhouse and two large strawstacks were burned. The contents of the barn which were destroyed, included between 1,110 and 1,200 bushels of wheat. The loss in both cases is fairly well covered with insurance.

Fancy and Staple Groceries

Never smokes or smells whether turned high or low. It is not merely an ordinary lamp improved. It is an entirely new method of [illegible] lighting. For simplicity and convenience of operation it is the equal even of gas or electricity. For splendid reading light and artistic general illumination it is the superior of either. The angle at which the flame burns throws the best light from its most brilliant surface directly downward. The effect of the light is doubled, producing a reading light with which no other system can even compete. Yet the Angle Lamp is the most economical of all lighting methods. Costs less to burn than even the ordinary lamp—fully ½ less. But call and see it or write us for full description booklet.
