0256

1872 November - December Cooper Harris Incoming Letters

SIDE ONE

Dear Cousins —

How kind, how very kind — this freshness of a glad surprise! to open my eyes again on Malvern! this bright morg.! — And my good cousin could not wait, or hear our united expressions of pleasure on recieving these tokens of loving remembrance.

In every semblance of the place I seem transported there, — and find delight in retrospect; — And what grateful emotions to the kind cousin — who helped one on my