0260

1872 November - December Cooper Harris

SIDE ONE

that day, so that we hope to see him in about a fortnight. My nephew Charles who was with him returned home about a fortnight ago. The medical man at Athens assures my sister that there is no constitutional ailing to my brother, which we hope may prove the case; but I can't help taking anxious about him as a professional man — We are, I am thankful to say, all pretty well. Remember me affy to Mrs Morris & your son & daughter. Dear, ever, Your affectionate friend
Bonnemworth

34 Brunswick Square
Bristol 30.xi.72

My dear Friend,
I recd. yr letter of the 12th 2 days ago. It was sent on to this place, where we are staying for a few weeks before settling in London for the winter.
I thank you much for your photographs which will aid, in our eyes, to the realise of our collection. I have sent 2 of them to my daughter who I dare say will acknowledge them herself. Your wife shows the effect of advancing years more than yourself. I have

Jonesport Dec. 1st / 1872

Dr. Morris
Kind Friend I received a note from you inclosing my sisters letter for wich please receive my heartfelt thanks & cannot reward you but god will in doing such deeds of kindness we lay the treasure where moth nor rust do not corrupt & here let me add manny thanks to your dear Son whom god will Bless for his Goodness to a stranger & fear I am asking you too far but I will say to you I am poor & a widdow I shal send a letter & a small Box to go to my Sister from myself please let me know if you write me again what I shal pay you as I do not know