0289

[redacted] 1913 January-March [redacted]

SIDE TWO

take comfort in the thought —
"Those who love
each other in the Lord never see
each other for the last time". —
I am sure he has gone to be "Forever
with the Lord" —

Mildred Washington
came early this
morg — to tell me
"he died this morg
at one o'clock"
She, thro' her
sobs could only
tell me had
"been seized with cramps" — ; his children all with him — But not his Brother —

Oh! how bright & cheerful he was on 2d day. —
It is hard to realize —
Another Father
he has been to me, —
and how much I shall miss his loving kindness — they may guess — who — has
so long proved & valued
his Christian friendship.