My beloved cousins
Dr. and Ann Morris.

It would not be easy for me to tell you of the many regrets which have been mine for missing your very kind calls here, — as I have really longed to have more of your company ever since your return home, —
— and while I shall always be hoping for visits from you, whenever I have ability, shall be particularly glad, to congratulate you in your new home. — for it seems to be drawing nearer the family circle. — but this evening, I want to express my aff.e sympathy with the sorrows, wh.
