My Dear Mrs Griffith.

I can not trust my voice to utter the feelings which not even your gray hairs can express caused by your most loving letter of remembrance just received. Notwithstanding the hand of God, flowers cover the surface of the earth – symbols of the resurrection they eternally reveal their beauty and fragrance of from the otherwise beautiless ~~beauty of~~ earth clothing with grace & giving it glory. When we resistance all glory in Eden first blown it does transcribe our affections too often chilled by the wintry influences of a life stricken with ~~hopes~~ and thoughts
