1823 April - July Cooper Morris Indiana

SIDE TWO

much to encourage you in your effort for this institution and I do not wonder that you press its claims.

I have an idea stored away, with reference to a certain little hospital, when the proper time for action arrives, proper now for certain efforts, and under particular leading from a little private line to which I prefer to adhere

Your friend
James H. Cowan