1873 April - July Cooper Morris Wyoming

SIDE TWO

of your narrative, and, with your permission, shall insert it, almost verbatim, in my address —

Should, at any time, the Spirit move you to write more — though even a page — I need hardly say that I shall prize it and I hope you will send it to me —

Again thanking you for all the trouble you have taken — I remain with sincere esteem & regard truly yr.

R. A. F. Penrose

To D. Casper Morris.
