A NOTABLE CELEBRATION.

The friends of Western Maryland College are arranging for a celebration of the completion of twenty-five years in the presidency of Rev. T. H. Lewis, D. D., at the ensuing Commencement. It is an event of sufficient importance to justify the extraordinary arrangements. Very few instances occur where one man occupies such a position for so long a time. Doctor J. T. Ward, whose name was so long connected with this institution, and who seemed indeed indentified with the life of the College, served 19 years.

No other College in the State has had a president for so long a period, and few outside of the State. And perhaps there is no other instance of a College 44 years old that has had but two presidents. The Western Maryland College has won a splendid place in the educational history of the State. Its policy has been largely shaped by citizens of this town and county, and after a long and difficult struggle it has achieved a reputation that makes its friends proud to be connected with it. The good it has done in this city and county can hardly be overestimated. Hundreds of our young people have received their educational training there and have had its impress made on their characters. Aside from any financial return which the College has made to the community, it should be and it is estimated of greatest worth because of the work it has done and is still doing among us.

An institution of learning does not often come before the public with the sound of trumpets; it prefers to do its work quietly and in secret places; but the time is very propitious for Westminster to show its appreciation of the College now by joining its congratulations upon the present happy occasion. It has been suggested that our people join in making some decoration of their homes and places of business on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 13th and 14th, which will be the most interesting days of Commencement week. We join in this suggestion heartily and hope it will be generally adopted. And we have no doubt our citizens will show their good will in other ways. Long may the College live among us and continue its good work.

Anniversary and Commencement at W. Md. College to be Elaborate.

Special features of the great gathering here on June 11 to 14, inclusive, in fittingly observing the rounding out of 25 years of most efficient service by Rev. Dr. T. H. Lewis as president of Western Maryland College, in conjunction with the commencement exercises, will be the attendance of an unusual number of well-known educators from all over the State who were specially prepared for their work at the College and the big reunion dinner.

The dinner will be the closing event of the most elaborate celebration in the College's history, taking place right after the commencement exercises on the 14th. A Baltimore caterer will be on hand, and in addition to the reunion of former graduates the committee intimates that the meal, in both variety and quality, will be one of the best ever served in or around Westminster, and that will be "going some." It will be a subscription dinner, and Thomas A. Murray, of 909 Calvert Building, Baltimore, the member of the committee to whom application must be made for tickets, reports that a surprisingly large number of tickets has already been disposed of. Classes that so desire will be seated together, and many reminiscences will be recalled of the good old school days.

The State recognized the College as an important agency for higher education when the General Assembly in 1879 assigned to it a number of free scholarships which had ben founded some years before for the education of those intending to teach in the public schools of the State. So, in order to better prepare such students, the College established the course of pedagogy.

Members of the State Board of Education—Dr. M. Bates Stevens, State Superintendent of Education and on board of trustees of Western Maryland College; Rev. Dr. T. H. Lewis, president of Western Maryland College.

Superintendents of Schools Outside the State—E. Justin Nelson, Lakewood, N. J.; Franklin E. Rathbone, Piedmont, W. Va.; F. R. Neighbours, Indianapolis, Ind. This is just some of those present engaged.

Many of the men soon go into more lucrative positions and women get married. It is said there is a steady demand for all graduates from the pedagogy department of the College.

MANCHESTER.

The members of Pocahontas Tribe, No. 167, I. O. R. M., of this place, held Memorial services, on Sunday last, at 2 p. m. Headed by the Alesia Band the order took up the line of march from its hall on South Main street up Main to York and Church streets to the Oak Tree, where a stand had been erected and seats provided. Being equipped with bouquets and baskets of flowers the members proceeded to the cemetery and decorated the graves of their departed brothers, while the band discoursed special music. Returning to the stand the following program was rendered: Music, band; singing, opening ode; prayer, music; address, Mr. Baker, of Baltimore; music, address, Dr. Littleton, Grand Secretary; singing, "Nearer My God to Thee;" address, Rev. Lau; singing; music, and Benediction. The attendance was large and a great deal of interest was centered in the exercises while the grand old oaks gently wafted to the breezes to the comfort of the crowd that enjoyed its extensive shade.

Rev. Thomas, of Adamstown, Frederick county, Md., accompanied Dr. Land home from classis at Silver Run, on Saturday evening, and preached the morning and evening sermons in Trinity Reformed Church, returning to classis on Monday.

Mr. Jacob A. Frederick in company with Mr. George Brown, president of the County Commissioners, went to Baltimore on Tuesday of last week and met the state authorities in regard to the building of 1¼ miles of state road east of Hampstead, and came home with the satisfaction of knowing that he has the contract. He has secured a large steam roller and contracted for the stone from Mr. Bittinger, of Hanover, and is going to work at once.

The block on South Main street, from the Square South to Oak Tree avenue, has been scraped and swept and is now receiving a heavy coat of crude oil, supposed to be a cure for the dust nuisance that now holds sway on our streets.

Mr. Vernon Stump, an employe in the paint shop of the Bergman coach factory, was taken suddenly ill with a spasm, on Monday evening, at 6 p. m., becoming unconscious. He exerted a strength that seven men could barely overcome. Dr. Harry Preston was in attendance and about 8.30 o'clock he was taken to his father's home, North of town, where he is convalescing.

Several weeks ago there was an inspector here from the State Board of Health looking into the capacity of the cigar factories and the number of workmen. According to his instructions each man must have 40 cubic feet of space and it has been quite a matter of concern with several of the factories that will no doubt meet the requirements of the law. The Masonhimer and the Gettier cigar factories have some 40 or 50 rollers busy in their factories, to meet their orders.

On Monday Mr. H. N. Burgoon returned from Greenmount with his mare and left his team standing in front of the postoffice. While he was inside attending to business several boys with a small express wagon came along on the pavement at which the horse took fright and started up town in a full run. An effort was made to stop her at the Gettier hotel, but she continued on in her mad career. At the G. M. Hoffman store they struck the spring wagon of Mr. Wm. Myers turned west of town and demolished one of the wheels and gave the venerable old coach a terrible shakeup, breaking the coupling and making it a customer at the shop.

Joe and his aid were in town on Monday with harp and violin treating the factory hands and hotels to fine music and trying to arrange for a Whit Monday engagement.

Last week Mr. Horatio Garrett, south of town, brought an E. M. F. automobile, and on Friday last Rev. Lau contracted for one of the same make, to be delivered next week.

Mr. C. J. H. Ganter has exchanged his 12 horse power machine for a 35 horse power Rambler machine with a full and up-to-date equipment.

Mr. A. H. Geiselman, who suffered an attack of erysipelas of the face, last week, is now convalescing.

We are sorry to say, at this writing, that the condition of Mr. Harry B. Hoffacker, who is at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hoffacker, on South Main street, where he and family have been for several weeks, is not very encouraging.

Mr. Wm. Dubbs and friend, Mr. Shue, of Marburg, Pa., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Dubbs, on Sunday last.

Rev. C. M. Eyster, of Baltimore, was in town on Tuesday, attending to business and the guest at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Burgoon.

Miss Lotta Shaffer and son William, of Baltimore, are visiting Mrs. S's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Shower.

Formerly Lived at Finksburg, This Co.

Thomas H. Gardner, the traveling preacher who killed his wife at Kittitas, Wash., was a former resident and probably a native of this county, having resided in his boyhood and youth with his parents at or near Finksburg. At the time none of his father's family reside in that vicinity.

He was a student at the Western Maryland College for some time, but was not graduated. Twenty-five years ago he went from the college to Westminster Theological Seminary, where he registered as a resident of Finksburg. He remained at the seminary only a few months, when he was dismissed to take a pastorate, presumably of the Methodist Protestant Church, but there is no record that he was ever identified with that denomination as a clergyman. It is said that he made application for admission to the Maryland Annual Conference, but was rejected.

While residing in this county he attended the Methodist Protestant Church at Finksburg. He has not visited that locality for many years.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Mr. Wm. Shaeffer, who purchased the John Masonhimer property, lost a fine young horse, one night last week. The animal got over the halter chain and became fastened in the stall.

Mr. Edward Shaeffer purchased the Absalom Fuhrman farm on the Stonersville road, containing 107 acres, 1 rood and 20 square perches of land for $8,654.42, Saturday last.

Mrs. Levi Myers, who is suffering with an attack of rheumatism is compelled to use a cane in order to get around.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fowler and daughter Ethel, of Baltimore, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. Levi Myers. Mr. Fowler came here form the funeral of his brother Joseph, who was buried on Tuesday last, in Krider's Cemetery, near Westminster.

On Memorial Day our band played at Littlestown.

Mrs. Clarence Myers, who has been poorly, for about eight weeks, is improving.

Divine service at 10 a. m., and Sunday school at 9 a. m.

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE.

College Commencement.

"We have reached the twelfth milestone in the history of Blue Ridge College. We now write finis in our ledger of time and the twelfth session closes. With these words President Wine concluded the year's work at Blue Ridge.

The College during commencement week presented a scene of unusual spendor and intense dramatic interest. Hundreds of Aluminins and interested friends from many States were here. Many who could not be accommodated at the college were given places to stay in the town and with friends.

The large auditorium was filled to overflowing during many of the programs and standing room was at a premium.

The Alumni Association banquet, which was held on Wednesday from 1 to 4 p. m., was proceeded by a business meeting.

A new constitution was drafted and adopted.

A movement was started to make Blue Ridge a permanently endowed college. This movement promises to be very successful.

Twenty-seven young men and women graduated.

IN MEMORIAM.

..HOOK.—On May 21, 1911, Julia A., beloved wife of Frederick N. Hook, in her 77th year.

Death has robbed us of our mother,
Whom we cherished with such care.
It was mother, yes, dear mother,
Can we help but shed a tear?

She has crossed the silvery river,
And has gained the radiant shore,
Where no heart with grief can quiver,
And all parting scenes are o'er.

We will soon pass on to meet her,
And make whole the broken band.
Meet her just across the river,
In that happy spirit land.

She is waiting by the river,
Just across the silvery stream,
Where sweet flowers are ever blooming,
And the banks are always green.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er.
On the border land we left her,
Soon to meet to part no more.

Far beyond this world of changes,
Far beyond this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved one
In our father's mansion fair.

By her loving husband and children.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear friend, Ruth Morelock, who fell asleep in Jesus, May 23rd, 1911.
Oh, my schoolmate is in heaven,
Where the gates have pearly bars,
And sometimes I think I see her
In the fairest of the stars.

She is waiting by the river,
Just across the silver stream,
Where the flowers are ever blooming,
And the banks are ever green.

Sleep on dear Ruth and take thy rest,
In God's sweet mansion fair blest;
By and by we hope to meet,
And cast our crown at Jesus' feet.

By Ethel M. Baker.

BELL.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Annie M. Bell, who departed this life, May 22nd, 1911.

Gone from this world of sorrow and pain,
Gone to that land above;
Gone to meet Him who hath died for us,
Gone where all is love.

We will miss her, yes, we'll miss her,
Tears unbidden, silent start,
But if all live as God would hav us,
We will meet and never part.

Free from sorrow, free from care,
Her life was filled with such;
We have lost, but she hath gained,
No tongue can tell how much.

By her son, Wm. F. Bell and his wife.

MILLER'S.

Funeral of Mrs. Harvey Frank.

Mrs. George Barber spent last Wednesday, Thursday and Friday visiting her daughter, Mrs. Harry Brilhart, at Baltimore.

The remains of Mrs. Harvey Frank were brought here, Monday morning, on the 10.17 train from Hanover, and interred in the U. B. cemetery. The deceased formerly resided here, and had many friends, who sympathize with the husband and parents in their sad loss. Rev. Strine of Greenmount, and Rev. Shettle, of Hanover, Pa., officiated. A large number of friends were present to pay their last respects to the deceased. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The pallbearers were Messrs. Charles Spicer, Wm. Hare, John K. Miller, Henry K. Miller, James Rohrbaugh and Henry M. Miller.

Henry M. Miller spent last Thursday with his wife, who is at a Baltimore Hospital. Mrs. Miller is improving.

Quite a number of our folks attended the festival at Ebergs, last Thursday, and the musical given for the benefit of the Lutheran Church at Manchester, in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Grogg and Mr. and Mrs. Geiman, of Black Rock visited the former's daughter, Mrs. Irvin Wynand and family, last Sunday.

George Smith and family, of near Old Fort, visited Mr. and Mrs. George Barber, on Sunday.

Mr. Richard Simpers is having his house painted, which makes a great improvement. Armstrong and Sons, of Lineboro, are doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry K. Miller entertained Mr. and Mrs. David Ebaugh and son Russell, of Greenmount, at their home last Sunday vening.

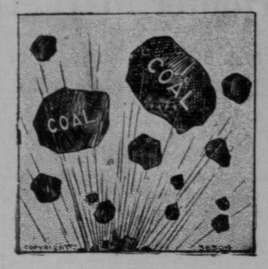

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Garrett, of near Stultz, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Smith, of York, Pa., visited Mr. and Mrs. Everett Miller, last Sunday.

Mr. Rinehart Hoffnagle is on the sick list.

Mrs. Lewis Seipp is entertaining friends from Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John Warner and Mr. and Mrs. John Koerner, of near Lineboro, Md., visited George Kerchner and family, last Sunday.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Theo. Miller, who had been ill, is much improved.
