1873 April - July Caspar Morris Incoming Letters

SIDE ONE

Tyson Mining Company,

Office, N. W. Cor. Charles and Lexington Streets.

Baltimore, 7 Mo. 1st - 1873

My dear friend
Dr Caspar Morris
Thy favor
of yesterday at hand.
In reply, my trip abroad is still undecided upon on account of some unexpected
important business which may put a stop to it. If this I may know of tomorrow. It would be as much for recreation as for business, being invited to join a party on the other side. Of course I should be very glad to promote Tyson's

I understand thy motives to be entirely disinterested & of course for Tyson's welfare.
& Christian comfort.
I sincerely trust
that his parents & Grand parents may may be blessed in him & their grace may triumph in his case.
I met Cousin
Galloway coming home
Cousin Mary sitting Cheerfully
a fine shower
last night & again
sincerely &c
