1873 August - October Cooper Morris Incoming Letters 1994

Little Eaton, Derby
Sept. 16th. 1873

My dear Friend

Your letter from Ivy Neck dated Aug 25th gave us much pleasure Dear Mrs Morris would recall the events of her early life and contemplate with mixt feeling those who are gone in connexion with what remains. I remember your speaking of your Father in law and his beautiful residence, when you visited us at Barton in 1834. Was it not there at Ivy Neck there used to be a basket of peaches standing in the Hall for the enjoyment of any who passed in or out? The world passeth away but there is an enduring world behind. May we meet there & tell of that goodness & mercy which
