SIDE TWO

for it is most humiliating to be dependent at my time of life upon the kindness & liberality of others, instead of upon the results of my own work.

I am exceedingly obliged for your loan of last month, but trust I may not have to beg again.

Cousin Emily was at Church this morning — She reports Aunt Margaret about the same — Her case is truly a sad one for herself & all dear to her. Is there any prospect of her being able to get into town? Ellen is very well & joins in a great deal of love to you & all around you.
