Thieves are Operating in Westminster and Vicinity.

During the past week the residences Mr. Herman and Mr. James Myers, of Union Mills, were broken into by thieves, who got away with a small lot of booty. Tuesday night the residences of Mr. James M. Stoner and Mr. Jesse Chrest, Pennsylvania Ave., this city, were broken into and the contents of bureau drawers and cupboards scattered over the floors. Wednesday night the residence of Mr. M. Theodore Yeiser was entered, the thieves sawing out some of the slats of a window shutter in order to gain an entrance.

P. O. S. of A. News.

Mr. Preston B. Englar, editor of the Carroll Record, Taneytown, and Rev. W. L. Seabrook, of this city, were National Representatives from Maryland in the National Camp of Patriotic Order of Sons of America, that met at Reading, Pa., Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. They returned yesterday.

There are 100,000 members of the order in Pennsylvania, and 4,000 in the city of Reading alone. Maryland has over 8,000 members of the order, many of whom reside in this county.

Mr. Seabrook has accepted a district presidency in the order, with a district comprising the camps at Westminster, Pleasant Valley, Tyrone, Carrollton, Smallwood and Grand Valley, and requests as many of the members as possible to attend the meetings of the camps at Westminster, next Monday evening, and at Smallwood, next Wednesday evening, to hear his report of the National Camp proceedings.

Washington Camp, of Pleasant Valley, will hold its annual picnic, in the grove at Mr. George Panebaker's, Bachman's Valley, tomorrow afternoon and evening, September 30th. Addresses will be delivered by State President McCleary, State Secretary Heaps, and District President Seabrook.

An Experiment with Oil.

One square on Main street in front of the Westminster Hotel has been treated with crude oil as an experiment against dust. This part of the street was put down in prepared tar and if the oil does not affect the tar the city may oil other parts of Main street. Liberty street, between Main and Green streets, which has not been treated with tar has also been oiled. This square has been very dusty during the past summer.

Automobile Accident.

Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Lewis A. Haller, Mr. and Mrs. J. Belt Townshend, Eugene Townshend, of this city, and Alma and Kelso Ecker, of Mt. Olive, this county, were descending a steep hill on the road from Mt. Olive Church to Harrisville immediately after passing the church, in Mr. Haller's automobile when suddenly the break of the auto refused to work and the automobile shot down the hill at a dangerous rate of speed. In crossing a water break, Mrs. Townshend, who was on the rear seat, was thrown up against the top of the machine and then down on the floor and her nose and face were cut and bruised severely. The machine could not be stopped until it had run some distance along the level part of the road.

Postal Savings Depository.

The Sykesville National Bank has been notified by the Board of Trustees of the Postal Savings System that its application to qualify as a depository for Postal Savings funds has been approved. This means that the funds received at the Sykesville Postoffice when it becomes a Postal Savings Bank, October 13th, will be deposited with the Sykesville National Bank.

This is the second institution in Carroll or Howard counties to be so designed and is in line with the progressive yet conservative methods that have characterized its management from the time of its inception.

This bank is constantly growing, its deposits are now the largest in its history being over $275,000. It pays regularly a 6 per cent. dividend each year. Its stock is in demand at $150 per share.

The officers are Wade H. D. Warfield, President; G. Harry Bevard, vice president, and William M. Chipley, cashier.

A Correction.

In the report of the colt show held in Manchester, September 16th, 1911, the Manchester correspondent for the Sentinel reported that a Mr. Shaffer, near Westminster, received second prize for a Reson colt owned by him. We have been informed correctly that the Mr. Shaffer referred to is Mr. Geo. K. Schaeffer, of Pennsylvania avenue, this city, who entered his fine Reson colt in the show. The prize awarded him was $7.50 instead of $5 as heretofore eported.
