What a different speech Mr. Gorman could have made at Fairview in accepting the nomination, if he only had known.

And Mr. Gorman promises to appoint "regulars" to office when he shall have been elected Governor. Aye, when he shall have been elected.

The Republicans of this county are united for the present campaign and will show their Democratic friends a mighty fine front November 7th. Every one welcome.

If Governor Crothers had called that extra session of the Legislature there would have been nothing left of the Democratic donkey but his tail There won't be much more than that left, anyway.

Mr. Talbott was for Lee. Gorman's Democratic friends cheated Lee. We wonder what Uncle Fred is thinking about while the frauds in Baltimore are being uncovered.

The Primary Election frauds in Baltimore are evidence enough to prove that the amendment to the State Constitution giving Baltimore a larger representation in the Legislature ought to be defeated.

Both amndments ought to be defeated. One is unconstitutional and the other is dangerous to the people of the counties. "No surrender to the Democratic ring of Baltimore" should be one of the slogans of this campaign.

Perhaps the Democratic bosses wanted an extra session of the Legislature to enable them to get one more grab at the State treasury before they all go to the penitentiary.

That was a pretty scheme to take the fraud investigation in Baltimore City out of the hands of the Grand Jury and turn it over to "Sonny Mahon's Legislature.

Cheating Republicans was one thing, but when the Democratic ring went so far as to cheat the honest Democrats there was another song sung. Help the Republicans to get rid of the Democratic ring and thereby prevent any further cheating of the members of any party. Unfair elections are the beginning of the end of a republican form of government.

Don't imagine a little thing like a Grand Jury investigation will put the Mahon machine out of business, Mr. Voter. This upheaval in Baltimore City will serve only to make the gang change their tactics and be more careful. They will be harder to catch than before if they are permittted to win this election.

Almost before the politicians had caught their breath, and certainly while the masses of people throughout the State are yet gasping from the shock at the enormity and flagrance of the election frauds being unearthed by the Grand Jury in Baltimore city—while everybody else is still dizzy and numb from the effects of the awful disclosures, the Democratic bosses are already assidiously cudgeling their brains to evolve some scheme whereby they vainly hope at one fell swoop—a single masterstroke—to appear in the dual role of investigator and investigated; of surgeon and patient; or crook-grabber and crook.

These political gamesters are losing no time in attempting to save from the wreck as much as is possible of the old machine and to speedily rehabilitate it or construct a new one, as to exigencies and the circumstances may later determine to be the more expedient. First we had Mr. Harman stood up in the attitude of a lone and solitary political purist and ballot reformer knocking at the door demanding that the Grand Jury investigate the McNulty charges of fraud in the primary, two days after the Grand Inquest had entered its probe and even while the crooked election officials and their friends were hustling for bail in anticipation of the presentments and arrests which followed—a ridiculous proceeding to be originated by a reputable and erstwhile enterprising newspaper, now generally condemned for its reckless zeal and discredited by its gross inconsistency.

Next we saw Mr. Gorman himself, through a dazzling and aweinspiring array of Baltimore's sagest counsellors, petitioning the court to allow him to do divers certain things, all of which, Judge Duffy informed us in his adverse ruling, had already been undertaken by the Grand Jury, with the notable exception that the appointmen of outsiders to assist the inquisitorial body, as requested by Mr. Gorman, (and so held by one of his eminent counsel), would be highly improper and clearly illegal.

But the crowning effort of the master-minds of the Democratic party—palpably the de luxe of all the products of their tireless energy, their restless anxiety to "do something" that would enable them to get control of the investigation—decidedly the most picturesque and at once the most pernicious plan evoked by these as yet unashamed and unsubdued Democratic bosses, was that which contemplated the calling of an extra session of the Legislature of the State for the purpose of taking the whole matter from the Baltimore Grand Jury and making the General Assembly the absolute and final body of inquiy, investigation and determination.

Imagine the last Democratic Legislature, that body which enlarged the provisions of the iniquitous Wilson Ballot Law and extended its operation to nearly every county in the State; which left all the loop-holes in the State-wide Primary Election Law and Corrupt Practices Act; which narrowly evaded the passage of Mr. Gorman's law giving the appointment of all the election officers, Republicans as well as Democrats, into the hands of the Democratic party; which did as much for Boss Mahon and his hordes of faithful servitors; with its record of laws making ballot juggling and all manner of corruption possible—imagine the Legislature with the trail it has left behind it "investigating" these frauds and crimes which smell high to heaven; and imagine what the result of that "investigation" would have been.

Thanks to an already outraged and exasperated public the bare suggestion of such a brazen proceeding created such a storm of vehement disapproval that sent its promoters back scurrying to their holes.

The next great danger lies in letting the Democrats get control of the coming Legislature.

They will not, if the people do their full duty on the 7th of November.

Meantime, the bosses are coasting about for some new plot to defeat the will of the people and the ends of justice "to save the party."

THE MARYLAND WHITE RIBBON.

Women Unfurl the Standard in This City—Annual Convention of the State Christian Temperance Union—Mrs. Haslup, of Baltimore, Presided—Delegates Welcomed by Rev. L. Emory Bennett and Mrs. F. T. Fenby.

The thirty-sixth annual convention of the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Maryland began at Centenary Methodist Episcopal Church, this city, Wednesday morning, with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. Pauline W. Holme, of Baltimore. The convention was called to order by the president, Mrs. Mary R. Haslup, of Baltimore. After the reading of their reports by Mrs. Annie D. Starr, of Baltimore, corresponding secretary, and Miss Frances A. Cathcart, Baltimore, treasurer, interesting reports on the state and national papers were made by Mrs. E. K. Wright, Baltimore for the White Ribbon Herald; Mrs. Wm. J. Brown, Baltimore, for the Union Signal, and Mrs. W. A. Curry, Baltimore, for the Young Crusader

Mrs. Milton Stewart, Baltimore, presided at the afternoon session, when the reports of the following superintendents were heard: Miss Ethel Crosby, Catonsville, colored people; Miss Iva Mearns, Rising Sun, flower mission; Miss Florence Hammond, Baltimore, medal contests; Miss Isadora Hoskins, Benson, parlor meetings; Mrs. E. P. Haines, literature and Union Signal; Mrs. Annie L. Neighbors, Rising Sun, systematic giving; Mrs. Alpha Bentz, Finksburg, parliamentary usage. President Haslup conducted the parliamentary drill, with reports from Mrs. Belle M. Haines, Rising Sun, on franchise; Miss Minnie P. Bryan, Baltimore, foreign speaking people, and Mrs. Anna B. Thomas, Baltimore, peace and arbitration.

Wednesday night, with about one hundred delegates present and a large local audience, Rev. L. Emory Bennett, pastor of Centenary Church, on behalf of the church, and Mrs. F. T. Fenby, of Woodensburg, on behalf of the local W. C. T. U., made addresses of welcome, to which the response was by Miss Rebecca T. Miller, of Baltimore. An address was also delivered by President Haslup, and an interesting report made by Mrs. W. A. Curry, secretary of the Loyal Temperance Legion. The convention adjourned last night.

UNION MILLS.

Thieves at Work.

For the first time in many years thieves made a raid on our village one night last week and gained entrance to several houses, stealing money and other goods. Samuel Messinger's residence was entered through an outside cellar door, the thief came up the stairs and into the bedroom of Mr. Messinger, who sleeps on the first floor. From the pocket of his trousers, which were hanging on the bed post, a pocket book and four dollars in money were taken. About 4 o'clock in the morning Mr. Messinger was aroused by a noise in his room. He got up and looked around, but discovered no one. The next day his empty pocket book was found in the yard outside of his house.

At Henry Herman's the thieves entered through a side window that was not fastened down. Here a downstairs room was ransacked and the floor strewn with burnt matches. The booty secured was $23 belonging to Mr. Herman's daughter, Victoria, $2 belonging to Mrs. H, and a half dozen silver spoons and a gold pen.

At Edward Groft's the Messinger trick was tried, but failed in this instance, as the door leading from the cellar to the first floor was locked. The presence of the thieves was shown by the open outside cellar door and the finding of burnt match sticks in the cellar.

That an attempt was made to get into Geo. W. Yeiser's residence was plainly shown by two slats being cut from one of the shutters of the house. These depredations were all committed on one night and the following night a lot of jared corn was stolen from the cellar of Edward Stonesifer.

Revs. John O. Yoder and S. C. Hoover, of Silver Run, and Mr. George W. Yeiser, of Union Mills, made a fishing trip to the Eastern Shore of Maryland, last week.

Robert N. Koontz has sold his house in this village to Edward Lease.

Lewis Haifley has returned home from St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore, much improved by a surgical operation he was subjected to. He is now visiting his son Frank, of Westminster.

Postmaster Gorsuch, of Westminster, with several of his assistants, made an inspection of the R. F. D. route of Myers' district, last week.

Raymond Markle is recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Shower, Misses Margaret Kirk and Addie Bange, of Baltimore, visited the family of Mr. and Mrs. H. Wirt Shriver, last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob P. Hull, of Harrisburg, Pa., are spending some time calling upon old friends at Silver Run.

UNIONTOWN.

The services held Sunday at the Bethel were of a very interesting character. The different speakers on the Sunday school, and Endeavor work brought new ideas to us, and ones it would be well for us to follow. Miss Mohr and Mr. Latch, of Baltimore, were enthused with their subjects, the first "Character Taining for Service," and the latter, "Home Department of the Sunday School." In the afternoon Dr. James E. Shreeve, of Westminster, described the work of the "Adult Bible Class," and Geo. H. Birnie, of Taneytown, urged the young folks to be careful in making their "Life Plan." Mr. Latch again spoke on the benefit derived from visitation.

In the evening Dr. Shreeve gave a fine address on "The Christian Endeavor Movement," and Linley W. Gerringer, of W. M. Seminary, followed with one on "Equipped for Better Service."

G. Thomas Mehring returned to Baltimore Sunday evening to his work, after several months vacation.

Mrs. Mehring spent several days near Owings Mill, with her son Chas., and family.

Mrs. Guy Segafoose and daughter, Evelyn, were in Baltimore Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Anna G. Hollenberry is spending the week with Mr. H. H. Harbaugh, and family, in Westminster.

Miss Hernie Hann is home from a visit in Baltimore.

Mrs. Marietta Trayer, of this place, has decided to quit housekeeping, and will have sale October 14.

Ezra Lemon and wife, lately of Speersville, Va., are visiting at James Cover's. Later they expect to move to North Carolina. Mr. Lemon formerly resided in this county.

White Culberton and wife, William Hedges and wife, and Charles Devilbill, of Baltimore, spent part of Saturday and Sunday with their uncle, Wm. Baust.

Harry Routson was at his mother's for a few days.

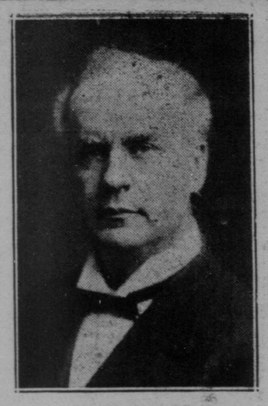

Mrs. Mary Otto visited Theodore Eckard and E. C. Caylor's, this week.

NEW WINDSOR.

Dr. Frazer attended the Presbytery at Highland, Harford county the first of the week.

Mrs. Sterling Gorsuch returned to Baltimore the first of the week.

Mrs. W. Cora Stouffer and Mrs. A. C. Smeiser, who have been at Pen-Mar for some time, retuned home Sunday.

Mrs. Thomas Haines spent the week end with her sister in Baltimore county.

Daniel Stouffer, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in and around town.

Mrs. Ann Gilbert died at the home of her son, L. I. Gilbert, near town Tuesday, September 26th, aged 78 years. The funeral services were held Thursday by her pastor, Rev. G. W. Baughman, and interment was in Winter's Cemetery. She is survived by one daughter (Mrs. Frank Brown) and four sons (Luther, of New Windsor; Charles at Manchester; Edward, near Uniontown, and Samuel, of Wilkesbarre, Pa.) It may be interesting to many to know that Mrs. Gilbert was wounded during the Civil War by a bullet from the conflicting forces that met just beyond town, near the place now occupied by Mr. John Hawk and wife, which was her home at that time. She had her son Luther on her lap, the bullet passing through her hand and grazing the child's breast, which mark Luther Gilbert carries today.

Mrs. John S. Baile and son left for a visit to Pittsburgh Pa., Wednesday.

Maryland Day services will be observed by the C. E. Society of the Presbyterian Church, October 15th.

John Hassett, of Virginia, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Lupton.

DANIEL.

Mrs. Guy Vaughan, of Ashland, Va., is visiting relatives and friends in this county. Mrs. Vaughan will be remembered as Miss Elsie Shipley, who formerly lived here.

Mrs. N. J. Shipley, of Baltimore, is spending several days in this vicinity.

Miss Ada Criswell recently spent a week in Baltimore.

Mr. Garfield Richardson spent Sunday with his parents, returning to Baltimore Monday.

Mr. Almer Pickett, who has twice, in a very short time, had a growth removed from his face is much better and his friends hope a cure may be affected.

Mr. Lester Waltz was taken to a hospital Thursday last and operated on for appendicitis. He is improving rapidly and expects to be home in a week.

Mr. Amos Shipley and sister, Miss Stella, have returned from a delightful trip to Ocean Grove, Philadelphia, New York and other points o finterest.

BACHMAN'S VALLEY.

Wednesday evening, September 27, a party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Wildasin, at this place, in honor of their son, Jacob Wildasin, it being the 28th anniversary of his birth. He received many handsome and useful presents. A few games were indulged in. At 11 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where refreshments were served in abundance at the beautifully decorated table.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Valentine Wildasin, Jacob Wildasin, P. Milton Myers, Charles Grant Bish, Milton Resh, Jos. T. Yingling and John Black; Messrs. John H. Yingling, Frank G. Meckley, John Meckley, Samuel Wildasin, W. J. W. Swenk, Philip T. Myers and Morris Resh; Mrs. Polly Garrett; Misses Elsie W. Yingling, Treva S. Black, Corinne Black, Mary E. Wildasin, Helen K. Wildasin, Mabel I. Wildasin, Corinne F. Myers, Marie B. Myers and Mary L. Myers.

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE.

The Weatherwax Brothers' Quartet in college auditorium this Saturday evening, October 7, at 8 p. m. It is the first number of a series of high class entertainments.

These four brothers have just finished a Chautaqua circuit through Illinos, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Minnesota, Wyoming and sang and played in hundreds of places east of the Mississippi.

Members of the lecture board have disposed of hundreds of season tickets. Don't feel slighted if they missed you. It is impossible to call on all our friends on short notice.

A bevy of our girls and a few boys recently inspected our big new neighbor, the noisy dusty fellow. Already many new ideas on dust consumers have sprung from the fertile minds of our future housekeepers.

It is with extreme sorrow that we mention the fact that one of our young sudents, Mr. Massey Kable, was compelled to seek treatment at the Maryland Sanitorium. He is the son of Dr. Kable, of Woodsboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield, Misses Thelma Littlefield and Pearl Starr and Mr. Rockward Nusbaum spent Saturday morning motoring in Southern Pa. They had luncheon on the historic battlefield of Gettysburg.

The Emersonian Literary Society recently elected the following officers: President, John Dotterer; vice president, Ralph Bonsack; secretary, Jesse Maugens; treasurer, Albert Shue; editor, H. S. Bear.

A large shipment of new apparatus and new supplies was received this week for the laboratory. As our "good" fathers have placed a ban on foot ball other sports must be indulged in.

Lawn tennis receives much attention, also basketball to some extent. Basketball seems to be, as ever, popula among our fans. Four teams in action at one time is a frequent occurrence.

Rev. H. L. Earnest, of Lonaconing, class mate of our Prof. I. C. Keller, spent a day at the college, recently. These two young men spent four years together at Albright College but are now in different fields of labor.

Rev. J. M. Blough, who has been in India and points in the far East for about seven years will preach in the chapel this Sunday evening. His talk will be along missionary lines and will be very interesting.

TAYLORSVILLE.

Mr. A. C. Barnes and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Deihl, near Medford.

Misses Delia and Cora Franklin, of Winfield; Miss Bessie Franklin and Mrs. Thurman Wright, of here, spent Thursday with Mrs. Howard Price.

Repairs of different kinds are going on in our little town.

Sunday school Sunday morning at 9 a. m. Class meeting at 10 a. m. Epworth League at 7.30 p. m. There will be no Epworth League after Sunday night until protracted services close at Ebenezer, which our pastor, Rev. H. C. Hall, will begin Sunday night. We wish him success.

Some of our folks attended Hanover Fair.

Mrs. Thomas Moore spent Wednesday last with Mrs. Thomas Koontz, Jr.

The Sunday school at this place will give its annual treat to its scholare Saturday aftenoon, October 14th, 1911.

Abie Tompkins, of Westminster, spent Sunday with Dr. A. T. Cronk and family.

Chestnut hunting constitutes the work of many on the Sabbath. Come to Sunday school.

FRIZELLBURG.

September 30, Mrs. Fanny Babylon was reminded of her birthday by her grandchildren coming to see her and staying for the night. Each brought her a fine present, which she appreciated very much. Sunday following her two daughters and husbands sprung a surprise on her by coming there to spend the day. They brought with them watermelons, frozen custard, etc., and this supplemented by the sumptuous dinner prepared by the mother made a royal meal. They had a pleasant time together and the event is held in high esteem by the recipient.

We are glad to note that Mrs. Wm. Sullivan, who is yet at the hospital, is improving rapidly and expects to return home by the latter part of next week.

Sunday school here in the afternoon at 1.30. Preaching by Rev. Murray at 2.30.

Charles Jones and Philip Snader, of New Windsor, were in town last Sunday, but their stay was very brief.

Arthur Stevenson, who was ill a few days ago, is about again but not able to work.

Mrs. John Lambert is visiting at Mrs. Mattie Myers', this week.

Annie Baust, who spent several weeks in Baltimore, came home last week.

Jacob Haines is putting up a new hog house on his premises.

PLEASANT VALLEY.

Mrs. C. Herbert Myers, who has been sick for the past few weeks is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kane and daughter Francis, who have been spending some time with Mrs. Kane's parents, have returned to their home in Philadelphia, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stair entertained, last Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Stair and son Wm., of Hanover, and Mr. and Mrs. George Stair, of Westminster. The former spent Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Stair.

Our public school which opened recently now has 48 pupils enrolled. Miss Miraud Nusbaum and Miss Hollis Leister, of Medford, are the teachers.

Miss Marianna Sheets, of Westminster, is spending some time with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah Stair, and her friend, Miss Rachel Devilbiss.

Sunday school this Sunday at 1 p. m. Divine service at 2 p. m, by Rev. John W. Reinecke.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mother, Home and Heaven.

There are three words that sweetly blend,
That on the heart are graven;
A precious soothing balm thy lend,
They're Mother, Home and Heaven!
They twine a wreath of beauteous flowers;
Which placed on memory's urn
Will e'en the longest, gloomiest hours
To golden sunlight turn.
They form a chain whose every link,
Is free from base alloy
A stream where whosoever drinks
Will find refreshing joy.
They build an altar where each day
Love's offering is renewed;
And peace illumes with genial ray
Life's darkened solitude.
If from our side the first has fled,
And home be but a name,
Let's strive the narrow path to tread,
That we the last may gain.

FRED B. JENKINS.

GIST.

Many hearts were made sad on the morning of September 26th, 1911, when the news of the death of Mr. Larry Shipley was received in this village. His death, however, was not unexpected because he had been dangerously ill for three weeks. Nothing was left undone which was thought would restore him to his usual health. Every effort was in vain. He was a kind and lovable young man with a ready smile for all whom he met, and this community has lost an excellent young citizen. Mr. Shipley was a son of the late Theodore M. Shipley, and, after the death of his father, became a member of the family of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Shipley, by whom he was reared and educated, and at whose home he died. No true hearts or willhands ever erared a fatherless child. Mr. Shipley is survived by his widow whom he married eight months ago, his mother, (Mrs. Elizabeth Shauck) and two brothers (Leslie R. Shipley, an R. F. D. carrier, and Theodore T. Shipley, of near Berrett) and by four half-brothers and his adopted parents. He was a member of Bethesda Church, from which he was buried, and also a member of the P. O. S. of A., at Gist, by whom he was buried. The funeral was attended by a large number of relatives and friends and the floral offerings were numerous and beautiful.

The picnic held by the ladies of the P. O. S. of A. lodge at Gist was well attended and was a success.

Miss Annie Miller visited Miss Marie Grimes last Sunday.

Mrs. Hannah Brown, of Sykesville, has returned home afters spending several days with her sister, Mrs. Charles W. Allen.

Many of the farmers are still very busy with seeding. The rains have delayed them very much.

TO THE PUBLIC.

Here is the place to have your cider and apple-butter made. I make every day except Saturday. I will guarantee every gallon of butter. I boil to give satisfaction.

The capacity of my mill is 3,000 gallons per day, and I can make it. You don't need to work your apples overhead, you work them from the wagon to the elevator.

Cider making, ½ cent per gallon
Butter boiling 5 cents per gallon

Not only for 60 days, but for the next season also; furthermore, you will get every gallon that is due you.

New whisky barrels, for sale here, for $1.50 each.
