"RIVER OF WATER OF LIFE"
Ezekiel xlvii, 1-12—Oct. 8
"Whosoever will, let him take of the Water of Life freely."—Revelation xxii, 17.

IN this study also we find that the Lord through Ezekiel gives us a picture of the Millennial Age, very similar to the one given us in the book of Revelation, seven hundred years after.

Ezekiel's picture shows Jerusalem and the Temple of God as the source of the River of the Water of Life; so in Revelation. Ezekiel shows the river deepening and broadening from a rivulet to a mighty river. He pictures it as flowing down to the Dead Sea, and carrying life whithersoever it goes. He pictures the Dead Sea as being revived, recovered from its deadness, and full of fish. No such river has ever yet sprung forth from Jerusalem, nor can we imagine how the river would ever have its start in the mountain top and reach such proportions in the short distance. This description, picturing a great spiritual truth, is in full accord with the picture in Revelation. It represents beautifully, forcefully, the blessings of refreshment and restitution which will issue forth from the New Jerusalem, the Kingdom of Messiah, when it shall be established amongst men. Gradually the mighty influences of the reign of Messiah will extend blessings to all mankind, even to the submerged class, steeped in ignorance and superstition, fitly represented by the Dead Sea.

"River of water."

Revelation pictures this river as flowing from under the Throne, the New Jerusalem, clear as crystal, and having trees of life on either side of its banks, good for food. Ezekiel has the same picture in mind; he tells of the same trees, whose leaf shall not fade and whose fruit shall not fail, but which will bring forth good fruit every month, because the water which refreshes them comes from the Sanctuary. "The fruit thereof shall be for meat, and the leaves thereof for healing." Similarly, in Revelation, we are told, "the leaves of the trees will be for the healing of the people" and the fruit for the sustenance of everlasting life; and the Water itself will be for their refreshment. Then we are told that "the Spirit and the Bride" shall give the invitation—a world-wide invitation. "Whosoever will" may come, and he who hears the invitation may say to others, "Come, and drink of the water of life freely!"

No Water of Life Now

We are certain in our application of these symbolic pictures, that they belong to the future and not to the present. Where is the Water of Life of Revelation now? Where have we anything corresponding to the life-sustaining trees and their healing leaves? On the contrary, now, we have the Lord's Word for it that "No man can come unto Me except the Father which sent Me draw him." In other words, there is a measure of selection or election as respects the class invited to constitute the Bride, the Lamb's Wife.

"But with the end of this Age will come the end of the elective process; then the Divine Message will be Free Grace, an offer and opportunity to every creature of Adam's race. All blind eyes will be opened so that all may see; all deaf ears will be unstopped that all may hear, so that the knowledge of the glory of God shall fill the whole earth.

No Bride to Say, "Come"

The Revelation picture tells us that the Bride of Christ, as well as the Holy Spirit, will give the invitation to every creature to come and partake of the Water of Life freely. But how could the Bride give this invitation before she exists? That there is no Bride at the present time is manifest. Now is the time for calling the Bride class. Now is the time for those invited to make their "calling and their election sure," but Bride there will be none until the incoming Age. The name "bride" implies a marriage; the Church is already espoused to Christ, but the marriage is promised to take place at His second coming. Then there will be a Bride, and shortly after, the glorified Church, in association with her Lord, will be in Kingdom power, in the New Jerusalem—the heavenly. From that City, that new Seat of earth's Empire, will go forth God's Message, gradually deepening and broadening until every member of the race shall have had an opportunity to share in its blessing of life everlasting.

"Sitting under the vine."

Blessed thought! When the Prince of Life shall have put in force the laws of righteousness and equity with an iron rod, the masses of humanity will learn that "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people." And, ultimately, they will learn to love righteousness. All who refuse to learn and obey will be "cut off" from life.

PRINCIPLE OF ARBITRATION

Victory Won in the Michigan Courts Which Will Interest Grange Insurance Companies.

The Patrons' Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Lansing, Mich., has recently won a victory in the courts which will have interest for grange insurance companies in other states. It appears that the arbitration feature of the Patrons' Insurance policy was challenged. The attorney general of the state held that the grange insurance organization did not have the right to compel policyholders to submit to arbitration their difference with the company relative to settlement of losses. He held that the arbitration feature was in contravention of the statutes and prevented the adjustment in court of points at issue between the company and policy holders. The company applied for a writ to compel the attorney general to approve of the policy form and the court has granted it, stating that the agreement in the policy is a voluntary one and declaring: "The doctrine is well established in the state that members of a voluntary society may set up a tribunal to adjudicate the differences that arise between the association and its decision final in the absence of bad faith or a refusal to act or pay after an adjudication has taken place." The case has excited considerable interest in insurance and grange circles. Speaker Baker of the lower house, who is also a member of the State Grange Executive committee, headed the attempt to secure legislation during the last session to bar arbitration in mutual companies but it did not carry.—New York Grange Review.

GRANGE MAN STATE OFFICER

Organization Recognized in Connecticut's New Secretary of the State Board of Agriculture.

The Grange gains decided recognition in Connecticut, where the newly-appointed secretary of the State Board of Agriculture is none other than the master of the Connecticut State Grange. Leonard H. Healey of North Woodstock. The latter has already entered upon his duties and has set about inaugurating a new era of efficiency and action for that department of the state government. At the time of his selection there was a tie vote on the board, between Healey and the former incumbent of the office, which was broken when Governor Baldwin came to the meeting and cast his vote for Healey.

Leonard H. Healey is one of the best-known farmers in Connecticut and his farm at North Woodstock is a model of thoroughness and prosperity. He has all the up-to-date machinery, does much of his marketing by automobile and is a good example of what thrift, energy and brains can do on a New England farm, when the same study and application are given to the work of that farm that would be necessary to win success in any other line of business.

Mr. Healey is one of the Grange leaders of the country. He is now closing four years of service as state master of Connecticut, following a similar term as state lecturer. He is assistant steward of the National Grange and an influential factor in the general councils of the order.

CAUSES FAVORABLE COMMENT

Grange at Medway, Mass., Takes Step for Civic Betterment That Meets With Hearty Response.

The Grange at Medway, Mass., is creating much favorable comment in its vicinity, followed by growing interest in its work, by taking a step for civic betterment that meets a hearty response from the people of the town. For several months this Grange has been at work raising money, until it has now nearly $200 available, with which it proposes to erect two drinking fountains in the village. They will be substantial affairs, practical and useful, and will be arranged for the most convenient service of the people.

The fountains will be set in place this fall and the time of their completion will be made the occasion for formal dedication exercises, at which prominent state officers of the order and others will participate, while the town will heartily accept so valuable and needed a gift. The Medway Grange members have entered very heartily into this undertaking, and interest in the regular Grange work has been distinctly increased and intensified because of this effort of philanthropic nature. Only a short time ago this Grange lost its quarters, with all its equipment, by fire, but notwithstanding the necessity for immediately replenishing its own, this plucky Grange has kept straight ahead with its drinking fountain plans and now rejoices in the near completion of the project.

World's Opium Conference.

All powers have now agreed to the holding of the world's opium conference at The Hague on Oct. 15. England has held out for an agreement of all countries to submit statistics on opium, cocaine and morphine, which has now been agreed to. Holland has been notified of the agreement and is expected to issue the invitations soon.

Just a Fraction.

"You say she is a woman with a past. And does she deny it?"
"Only about ten years of it."—Judge.
