Struck by Train and Killed.

While returning from a coon hunt Saturday night with his twin brother Allen, Irvin Koller, 37 years old, was struck and instantly killed by a train on the Western Maryland Railroad, near Alesia, this county. The accident occurred in a lonely spot and all through the long night Allen remained beside the mangled body of his brother until early dawn, when a trackwalker approaching was sent for help. Allen, upon hearing the sound of the approaching train, stepped off the track just in time to escape, and thinking his brother was walking on ahead of him resumed his journey, only to stumble over his dead body in the darkness.

LOCKJAW CASE PUZZLING.

Cause Which Led to Boy's Death Not Clear to Physicians.

The funeral of Charles J. Flater, 9 years old, son of Mr. Charles J. Flater, a former resident of Woolery's district, this county, of 2823 Pennsylvania avenue, Baltimore, who died Sunday from lockjaw, took place Wednesday.

According to the attending physician the case is the first of its kind in Baltimore for 15 years. For a week before his death the lad suffered unspeakable agonies. In the great majority of tetanus cases the point of infection is most evident. But in the case of Flater not the slightest scratch was revealed as an entrance for lockjaw germs. Dr. William D. Booker tetanus specialist, said the case was remarkable.

About a month ago the boy was playing in a stable in which three years ago a horse died of tetanus. While playing he scratched himself with a saw. The scratch soon healed and nothing more was thought of it. It is considered possible that tetanus may have developed from this. Two weeks ago the boy went chestnut hunting on his grandfather's farm in this county. He was severely scratched. On his return the symptoms were first evident. This too, his physicians are studying.

The services which were held at 2.30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, were conducted by Rev. Foster O. Gill, pastor of Calvary Lutheran Church. Six of the boy's playmates acted as pallbearers.

NO APPEAL BY COMMISSIONERS.

Circuit Court Ruling in Bank Deposit Tax Cases Accepted.

In making the new assesment interest-bearing deposits of residents of Washington and Carroll counties in the banks of the State, wherever found, were assessed to the depositors in the county of their residence. In the other counties this assessment was not made.

These test cases were brought in the Circuit Court for Carroll county against the County Commissioners, and several weeks ago Judge Brashears handed down a written opinion fully discussing the principle involved and deciding all three cases against the County Commissioners and against the taxing of interest-bearing deposits in such banks. It had been anticipated that whatever the decision of the lower court appeal would be taken to the Court of Appealt, but the County Commissioners have passed the following resolution:

The following resolution was passed by the County Commissioners, October 23, 1911:

Resolved, that no appeal be taken in the Bank Deposit Tax cases from the decision of the Circuit Court for Carroll county, and that all assessments of Bank Deposits be struck off the assessment books, and that any County taxes paid on any such assessments shall be refunded to the taxpayer.

In assessing the Bank Deposits the Assessors followed the instructions of the State Tax Commissioner and the Attorney General, which was law, until decided otherwise by a Court; and the Court having decided that such deposits are not taxable, we have determined to stand by said decision and not take an appeal to the Court of Appeals.

Birthday Party.

The beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lawson, near Hoffmanville, Baltimore county, was all ablaze with light and warm with hospitality, Saturday evening, October 21st, in honor of Mrs. Lawson's birthday. It was a complete surprise to her, as her husband and eldest daughter, Mabel, had planned and arranged the matter between themselves. Saturday morning, Mr. Lawson, accompanied by his wife, left home to spend the day among relatives and friends in New Fredom and during their absence Myrel busied herself preparing the house for the reception of their friends in the evening. The preparations did her extreme credit as a small hostess. The evening was spent in music and games and at 10 o'clock refreshments were served. The table was decorated beautifully with flowers. As the Sabbath began to approach the guests departed, wishing Mrs. Lawson many more years of life. She was the recipient of some very pretty birthday presents.

Among those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Frank Lawson, W. T. Lawson, Wm. Smith, John L. Eckard, Charles E. Eckard, of Westminster; George Florsted, George Hoffman, Geo. In view of the astounding disclosure of vote frauds in Baltimore the Anti-Saloon League has secured as the speaker for its fall Local Option Rally at the Lyric, next Sunday, October 29, Judge A. Z. Blair, of the Common Pleas Court of Ohio, who recently disfranchised nearly 2000 voters in Adams county, Ohio, for election frauds.

Two years ago only one candidate in Baltimore City on either ticket would declare for the local option bill. He was elected. This time six candidates in the Second and Third Districts have openly declared that they will support the measure and the League is expecting to support quietly at least three others concerning whom it has confidential assurance. The election of six or seven local option men to the Legislature from Baltimore City would insure the passage of the bill.

Mr. Fink's Reply To The Carroll County Local Option League.

Westminster, Md., Oct. 10, 1911.

Dr. D. F. Shipley, Secretary,
Carroll County Local Option League,
Westminster, Md.

My Dear Sir:—

Yours of recent date duly received asking me whether, if elected, State Senator, I will vote for the State Wide Local Option Bill presented to the last Legislature by the Anti-Saloon League and which is to be presented to the next Legislature in the same form. Also in case this Bill should fail to pass, will I vote for a similar bill applicable only to Carroll county.

In reply I beg to say, that accordin to my conscience and professional judgment, a promise to vote for a particular bill would be a violation of the Law against "Corrupt Practices" and moreover, an infringement of this Law upon my part, would subject me to its severe penalties and even prevent me from holding the office or position should I be elected thereto.

But, I believe, I am not violating the law in expressing my opinion or sentiments in a general way, namely, that I believe in majority rule, and am in favor of the submission of any question to the vote of the whole State or any county, if a reasonable number of the registered voters ask for such submission.

Respectfully yours,
CHARLES E. FINK.

Candidate's Adv. by authority of his Political Agent.
