Weeping Letters

SIDE ONE

Malvern Feb. 18/74

Dear Doctor.

I wish you had yielded when you were "tempted again & again to take the Cars to Alex. & make me a visit" I am sure good w̄ have come of it to mine & me - &. I know you w̄ have regarded that as compensation for the effort.

I am glad you approve of "the Reply" It was a difficult & delicate matter to manage It is very gratifying to find that it is favorably regarded by my friends, & I trust is attended by a blessing from above -

I had written thus far when your second letter was handed to me. I send you two copies of the "Reply" & w̄ forward more - but I had only 500 printed & but a few are left.

Dear friend - I am so fully persuaded of your relationship to our dear Lord that I am confident He will care for & keep you
