SIDE ONE

To Dr. C. Morris Gettysburg Pa. Feb. 23/74
Phil. Pa

Respected Sir. As my dear Sister, Miss Reynolds, has not been able to write a letter with a pen, for a long time I take the earliest opportunity to acknowledge the receipt of your very kind letter of the 21st instant.

From the nature of my dear Sister's disease, she has been a sufferer for some years, and is now more painfully affected than ever, but I rejoice to say that she is able to cast all her care on her Saviour, whom she realizes to be a present help in all her sufferings.

Sister still remembers Mrs Galloway with the warmest affection, and cherishes the greatest respect for her family, she wishes me to say
