1874 January-May Cooper Morris Lincoln Lovers

SIDE TWO

that she is very sorry for Mr Gillam Chaston's affliction, Sister wishes me to give her grateful thanks to Mrs. Morris for this unexpected manifestation of sympathy, and prays that our Heavenly Father, who gave her the desire to do this, may reward and bless her and her family.
I am so sorry that you should have any further trouble with the Post Office Order for $25.00/00 which Mrs. Morris so generously sent, and I feel a great delicacy in returning it, but think that she would not like her kind intentions to be frustrated.
As you had mentioned on the Envelope of my letter that the Gift was for "Miss Reynolds, I thought she was the proper person to sign the "Order but my son found by applying at the Office that the money could not be paid unless we could obtain another order; as the letter of instruction was intended for my signature.
With sincere thanks for your sympathy and kindness, and earnest prayers for the happiness and prosperity of yourself and family,
I remain respected Sir.
Your Friend
Rebecca M. Eyster.
