1874 January-May Cooper Morris Wanting Money

SIDE ONE

Baltimore March 19th/74

Dr. Morris,

Although apparently a stranger to you, as a niece of my lamented Aunt Watson, I have taken the liberty to address to you a few lines, to appeal in behalf of my Aunt E. Snowden, whose pecuniary difficulties have accumulated to such a degree, that she was obliged some time ago, to ask of the Church of the Epiphany the amount loaned by my Uncle Joseph Watson for a certain number of pews when the Church was in great difficulty. From old letters of her beloved Sister, she feels that neither she or her agent would have made such a demand on the Church, if it had not been a just debt - Having heard you had been recently in Baltimore she
