very kind to me here & it would be ungrateful in me not to like Pittsburg.

If possible I shall spend the Christmas holidays in Bethlehem & Philadelphia, I hope to have the pleasure of calling on you.

Hoping that you are well I remain most respectfully

Dr C. Morris.

Dear Sir,

Allow me to thank you for your kind letter of the 29th ult, which I rec. only on the 30th.

As you seemed to take such a kind interest in me, I thought it no more than right, to let you know that I had obtained the position & thank you.— Now I am very glad indeed to have done so, for I am very thankful for your answer & particularly for the suggestions you make, they could not have come at a more appropriate time. Entering a new era of my life, I feel the danger of becoming ambitious
