Cooper Harris - Incoming letters

MS 1899

SIDE ONE

Since last I chatted with you - you see I have promoted in the nice home God & my dear Husband provided for me.
Have you & dear Mr. Morris found rest in the charming country When you leave your City home.
I am so much obliged to you for letting me of your family I so like to picture you both - Do you hear much of the wonderful work your country men Moody & Sankey have been doing in Scotland & Ireland? Ernest writes me he hopes to hear them in Manchester shortly - With dear Reid friend I would be coming of Mr. Day's Epistle - please tell you how forgiven my seeming neglect by letting me hear again before long. & trusting dear Mr. Morris health is better & with our united love to Mr. Reid remembrances to your Barnsley & your family Who may remember me & ever again thanking you for your most welcome letter Believe me always most gratefully yours Anna Harris

staying with Ernest for 6 weeks last Summer & my pleasant peaceful time we had - the parishes are so thoroughly visited & the labourers being so well known & cared for under the Duke & Sutherland see so contrasted & different from those near London We dear Old man who has been so shepherded his life & now pensioned by the Duke is such a delightful pattern of what Christian should be - so bright often thought how you & Mr. Morris would enjoy speaking with him - & he is such a help to Ernest - this at his cottage they hold the address weekly & prayer meetings - I hope I am thankful God has placed my pupils so carefully with such people - Percy went abroad last Easter & remained with Pasteur Vernier at St. Croix near Dieu in the Jura till he returned & entered at Trin: Col: Cambridge early in October he is quite the man now & 5 feet 10 - Ernest had made some very nice friends at Cambridge & dear Percy has there some godly & steady companions to associate with on his first entry there - Bertie is still at Harrow but must leave next month being 17 - I am more than half en-clined to persuade him to study
