SIDE TWO

medicine - hitherto I have shrunk the profession as a mere relative of my dear Husband cannot bring while studying in the hospitals in London - Gertrude is off to go to the Misses Hutchinson Kensington Sundays in finishing her education after Easter & our Cousin Vincent to enter at Stonyhurst College (preparatory school for Harrow) at Easter - he gains at present and promises as a soldier Elizabeth has gone in Scotland this Autumn & returned last month for Maude Pots marriage with a son of one of the Halifax Crossleys - (Clement son of the late Joseph) all the sons inherit large property & the match seems to give satisfaction generally - Hilda is now visiting in London & Alice & I are quite alone! - Sheevas at Sudeley Castle, & some time in September for her friend Olga Campbell's marriage to Major Gildea - son of the Postmaster - She sends her fond love to dear Mrs Harris & hopes writing her in Mass

I am rejoiced to tell you she has begun to work for Jesus & is just now my interest in a Mothers' meeting. The work is hard but a month since I so much talking joined to strong claims of help & sympathy after her exams: & the cold weather is over. We had a nice Autumn, but cold set in about 8th & Monsters dark days here as in your - Mrs Rathmell & my dear friend Mrs Stanton passed a fortnight last 25th last month. She had her eldest daughter - her only daughter was married to an Indian Civilian last year but was taken again in ill health by last Easter - Poor Mamsh took Hesbert to the Synod Conference & I have good hope the deep impression made by Mr & Mrs Pennell Smith & Rev. Mr Haslam's addresses are much blessed to him - so I have had much to cheer, if much of anxiety
