C 4 3 3

1874 June - December

Cooper Harris Incoming letters

MS 1994

SIDE ONE

I procure abounded & superabounded & where last year in that City of Peace the murders numbered within a fraction two a day. What a contrast to that olden time & how full of instruction & warning.

And Egypt too thou visited & saw with thy own eyes those wonderful remains of her ancient splendour - when she was chief among the nations - These experiences must furnish thee with many recollections & impressions of deep interest.

But I forgot in these old times for what I took the pen - which was simply to say that enclosed thou wouldst find a contribution to the Institution for the Blind of which thou wrote. I have a very lame hand wh makes writing difficult. Please excuse my shortness — wh love thy old friend

Alfred Cope