SIDE ONE

After thee left — having a relapse — with increased Sore throat I — felt obliged to seek further medical advice; — — The kind attention of our mutual friend Dr. Leroy H — proved to be timely aid and relieved aggravated symptoms. — But am not quite up to usual standard. — he left me to attend the funeral of Mrs Woolsey in N. Y. — his wife's mother. It looks sad to see their corner — 9th & Walnut — all boarded up again!! —

When the Sun shines I shall be out — to seek its always reviving beams.

Dear Sister C — has been often here of late — for short calls of affte interest. She will be glad of thy love message

Ever thine — gratefully — fondly. C.H.

My very dear Cousin Casper

Yesterday I had pleasure in copying the enclosed lines for thee —

To-day I have greater pleasure in welcoming thy dear kind letter from Baltimore; and assure thee of my glad surprise — in finding a letter from thee on our "Parlor floor": the day of thy departure! It was very soon lifted from its humble resting place and met a spring in my heart, as I drank of the
