A horse attached to a buggy ran away on Main street Monday night. He about cleaned the street and disappeared over College Hill. No one seems to know who owned the team. The law against leaving horses standing without being hitched seems to be a dead letter.

A landslide occurred below Cranberry on the Western Maryland R. R., about one o'clock Saturday morning last. A number of rocks were piled on the tracks and Mr. Jacob H. Weller, section foreman, was called out to assist with the work. The freight train which passed through here about midnight was delayed for sometime.

A team composed of two horses and two mules, owned and driven by Mr. Edward Freyman, of near Gist, this county, ran away on E. Main street, this city, Saturday last and caused considerable excitement at the east end of town. When opposite the residence of Mr. Carroll Albaugh some one drove close to his team and cracked a whip over the head of the saddle mare. She sprang forward, pushing the pole against the mules, frightening the whole team.

Mr. Freyman, who was on the "hay carriage" jumped off and tried to get to the rubber in the rear of the wagon but the animals ran so fast he missed it entirely and the frightened team kept on down the street towards the east end of town until it collided with the team of Mr. William Devilbiss, of Reese, which was standing opposite Mitten's bakery throwing Mr. Devilbiss out of his wagon and breaking one of the wheels. One of Mr. Freymen's horses was thrown down and injured slightly.

Plans for the Odd Fellows Rededication and Grand Rally, to be held the 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th of May are progressing very satisfactorily. The chairman of the twelve committees who have the arrangements for this big demonstration to look after, met on Monday night of this week and selected the degree teams who will give out work of initiation, and conferring of degrees. From present indications there will be plenty of work for them to do, as the candidates who have already been elected, numbering ten, as well as a large number whose applications are now on file, and all that will be received from now until the date of the Rally, will be held over and given the degrees by these teams. The Initiatory degree will be given by "Sulphur Spring Lodge 130, of New Windsor, Md. First degree by "Daniel and Jacob Lodge 23, of Manchester, Md. Second degree by Prosperity Lodge 58 of Mount Airy, Md. Third degree by Mount Zion Lodge 887 of Pikesville, Md.

Celebrated Their Golden Wedding

Wednesday, March 13th, 1912

From Hampstead Enterprise of March 15

Mr. and Mrs. Michael S. Brilhart

For fifty years Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Brilhart have trudged along life's pathway together through summer's sun and winter's storm, bearing each other's burdens, sharing each other's joys Sometimes the way was rough and steep and shadows of sorrow fell across their pathway, but over and above it all the sun of prosperity ever shone and the angel of happiness was not long absent.

It was on a Thursday, March 13, 1862, when they promised to love and honor each other so long as life should last, and each has kept that promise well. They have lived to retire from active work on a handsome competency and to see themselves surrounded by a family of seven children, each of whom is an honor to them, and al of whom have married into the best families in this section of Maryland.

Mr. Michael S. Brihart is a son of John and Elizabeth Brihart, and was born in Codorus township, York county, Pennsylvania, February 7, 1835. When he was quite small his parents moved into Bachman's Valley, Carroll county, Maryland, where he grew to manhood and where he met his wife.

Mrs. Brilhart was Miss Mandilla C. Hoover, daughter of Joseph and Sarah Hoover, and was born February 22, 1838. Mr. and Mrs. Brilhart were married March 13, 1862 at Shrewsbury, York county, Pennsylvania, by the Rev. David Gring, who has long since gone to his final rest.

They immediately commenced housekeeping at the Joseph Hoover mill, the property of her father, in Bachman's Valley, and remained there four years when they bought the property now known as Brilhart's Mill, near Hampstead, where for about forty-five years they lived and prospered, until about two years ago when they built a handsome residence in Hampstead and retired from active work.

When Mr. Brilhart bought the mill property that now bears his name, it was in a dilapidated condition but he remodeled and repaired it at once. In 1875 the mill burned and was immediately replaced by the present modern structure. Mr. Brilhart also built all the other buildings at Brilharts Mills including a handsome brick residence, and has always been an active, progressive man and Mrs. Brilhart has been a helpmeet in the full sense of the word.

To this couple were born eight children all of whom grew to manhood or womanhood and in industry and frugality followed close in the footsteps of their parents. In the order of their birth they are: Mary Alice, who married David J. Leister, died in 1905; Sarah Elizabeth Ann, born November 25, 1867, now Mrs. J. Frank Switzer; Ida May, born February 18, 1871, now Mrs. James Yingling; David Joseph, born April 20, 1874; Emma Louise, born June 19, 1875, now Mrs. J. U. Leister; Jennie Alverta, born July 26, 1877, now Mrs. Harry Bixler; Amanda Willella, born November 15, 1879, now Mrs. P. A. Rinaman; George Michael, born October 5, 1881.

All of their children who are living, reside in the immediate vicinity of Hampstead, except the youngest, George Michael, who now lives in Pittsburgh, Pa. This honored couple now have seven children, fourteen grandchildren and one great grandchild, and on Wednesday of this week many of them with other friends gathered at the Brilhart home in Hampstead to help them celebrate their golden wedding. The home was handsomely decorated and the feast that was served was fit for the gods, consisting of chicken, beef, oysters, vegetables and a bewildering and tempting assortment of pies, cakes and all the other good things that Mrs. Brilhart and her daughters know so well how to make.

The centre of the table was adorned with a large pyramidal brides cake, beautifully iced and on which was inscribed in colored icing "50th Wedding Anniversary, 1862-1912—Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Brilhart." Ferns and carnations completed the table decorations.

Just before the noon dinner hour the golden wedding ceremony was performed, Rev. T. S Land, of Manchester officiating with a most appropriate and touching address. On the wall above and directly back of the handsome and happy couple was a large panel in gold and tinsel bearing the inscription:

50th Wedding Anniversary
MARCH 13, 1862
Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Brilhart
MARCH 13, 1912

A five o'clock dinner was also served and a delicious luncheon at nine P. M.

The presents were numerous, pretty and valuable, among them being a purse of $22.50 in gold.

Mr. Brilhart was dressed in the conventional black but it had the distinction of being the same suit in which he was married just fifty years ago, and indeed it shows that for men, styles have changed but little. The suit like its wearer has stood well the storms and is but little the worse for wear. Mrs. Brilhart looked real handsome in a lovely black silk and in spite of the passing years, is active, and entertaining and has not yet lost all the charms of other days.

Guests were received all day Wednesday and Wednesday evening, Misses Treva Leister and Addie Bixler, granddaughters of Mr. and Mrs. Brilhart, acting as ushers, and made everyone welcome. Among those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames M. S. Brilhart, J. F. Switzer, James Yingling, David Brilhart, J. U. Leister, Harry Bixler, P. A. Rinaman, Jacob Sharrer, J. Hull, W. C. Stick, Henry Long, N. T. Houck, Thomas Miller, C. V. Tipton, W. H. Bright, Howard Snyder, E. L. Murray, George Hoover and J. B. Babylon, of Wakefield, Md., Edward Leese of New Windsor, Jesse Baile and son Sterling, of Medford.

Rev. Dr. Thos. S. Land of Manchester, who performed the golden wedding ceremony.

Mesdames:—Maria Brilhart of New Windsor, Rebecca Hoover of Hanover, Pa., Sarah Nagle, Mary Kemp, of Baltimore, George Panabaker, Wm. Burgoon, Albert Nagle, E. Worthington, E. LaMotte, A. R. Schultz, C. M. Murray, W. A. Murray.

Misses:—Annie and Carrie Grover, Carrie Panabaker, Treva Leister, Addie Bixler, Naomi Yingling, Mary Rineman, Gladys Leister, Mary Hull, Edyth Long, Lee and Georgia LaMotte, Madaline Rhoten, Bertha and Rosa Snyder, Jesse Fuhrman and Hilda Babylon.

Messrs:—Raymond Leister, Milford, Jacob and Michael Leister, Allen Murray, Homer and Luther LaMotte, Rowland Worthington, and Master Wilson LaMotte.
