0 4 4 2

1875 January-March Casper Morris incoming letters 1994

SIDE TWO

trying Anniversary of our fresh. since it had not been a very trying time to him. I had not heard just how he was and have been very anxious about him but in a letter lately he sent me word that he was as well as could be expected. I have thought of our dear one enjoying that beautiful rest that is prepared for Gods Children in the presence of her Saviour whom she loved to serve. Oh what a rest to be with her Lord & Saviour free from suffering, which she endured for so many years, with such love and patience.

I am sorry to say that I have not been so well have been confined again to my bed with a very severe bilious diseases which has weaken me a great deal. before that I had been moving about much better in my rooms. but I hope I shall soon be back to where I was. dear Dr. will you please except this little pocket pin cushion. and I think you would appreciate it the more because it is made out of a piece on dear Bro. Chestons bells which she gave me many years ago. I made one and sent it to dear Bro Chestson. I hope you found Brigs Hallowen with well on your return home. do you know anything of Brigs Hannah Scull, is she