Notice To Subscribers, Advertisers And Correspondents Of The Sentinel

Beginning Tuesday, April 30, 1912, the American Sentinel will be issued twice a week and the price of both issues will be $1.00, the same as the one issue heretofore published. It will be published every Tuesday and Friday afternoon thereby enabling the management to send out the news of the county and state before it becomes too stale. Westminster has been known, and is now looked upon, as a "Saturday Town," as far as the merchants are concerned, and we are persuaded that it has been made so because of the lack of proper advertising facilities. It will be the aim of the Sentinel to not only send out all news while it is fresh but to enable our advertisers to talk to the people of the county twice a week, instead of once, if they wish to.

All Advertisements will appear once a week, unless otherwise ordered.
