My dear Uncle,

I am sorry not to be able to give as good news of us all as I had hoped by this time.

Ellen was confined about 7 o'clk. yesterday, & though doing well herself her child, a girl, was still born. I attribute a prolapse of the cord an hour before its birth, but consider keep it out of the way & nothing could resuscitate the child. Ellen is doing very well & is very calm & quiet. Carrie McMurtrie commenced, I trust Mrs Garroway, to able to
