standing with each new President that he is to take the obligation as a positive one from which he can be relieved only for a satisfactory reason, to be formally ~~approved~~ by the visiting Committee — or Board, or both — the way of clearing this understanding, and perhaps the best, would be to recommend the giving of certificates of satisfactory ~~discharge of duties~~ performance of duties, during term of service, by the Board — if deemed advisable. This is the old custom of the Rum-

Thomas Hospital, which I hope be wrong, I think, & probably, but I cannot be certain. I expect to be at home from 9 o'clock until 10 P.M.

Yours truly, Caspar Morris
