Fire And Storm Insurance

Consult me before insuring your properties as I am certain I can save you some money.

I am writing insurance every day, both Fire and Storm, and nothing is beneath my notice, as I take large and small, and both receive my best attention.

Fires take place when least expected and it is mighty comforting to know that you are being taken care of by a first class company. Examine your policies before they expire and let me renew them for you. Prices are low compared with the protection given.

FOR FLETCHER'S
CASTORIA

MANCHESTER

Miss Fannie G. Ross gave a five course dinner at 6 P. M. Thursday 2nd inst., in honor of Mrs. Stabler county primary supervisor of the public school and had gathered around the board with the honored, the Misses Celia M. Shower, Carrie Lamotte, Addie Trump, Prof. Stanley Bowlus and Prof. Harry Fogle, teachers, with the members of the home family.

The table appointments and decorations were fine. A miniature May pole stood in the center of the table from which a ribbon festoon extended to a doll in red costume in front of each teacher's plat. The place cards were minature diplomas tied with white satin ribbon. On the reverse side was the word geographically, backed by a prize to the teacher who could write the most words with the letters it contained during the time of the dinner. Mrs. Stabler, Miss Shower and Prof. Bowlus each wrote more than 100 words but in the outcome Prof. B. came out the winner and received the prize book "Sweet Violets". The other guests each had a basket of flowers to their credit among the decorations, among them being Mrs. Geo. Schaffer (nee Lotte Shower), of Baltimore. Miss Ross was deserving a vote of thanks, not only for the excellent dinner but, also for the decorations and the educational scheme she so well planned which added much interest to the occasion, which will not soon be forgotten.

A number of our citizens and business men went to Greenmount on Thursday evening to attend a road meeting, at the store of Mr. John H. Stansbury, where fifty or more tax payers met to discuss the section of the turnpike between this place and Hampstead which is in the worst kind of condition for travel, and which is in daily use, not only by the citizens of the above towns but country. Mr. John H. Stansbury was called to the chair with Arthur Dehoff sec'ty. After a free discussion of the matter a motion prevailed for the appointment of a committee to solicit signers to a petition to the County Commissioners to improve the county road between the two places.

The committee was appointed consisting of Messrs. J. W. Hoffacker, J. E. Masenheimer, J. H. Bucher, Wm. H. Gettier and C. J. H. Ganter, of Manchester; J. H. Stansbury, Benton Hann, Arthur Dehoff, Wm. Nagle and B. F. Bosley, of Greenmount and Whitfield Stansbury, Thomas Bosley, John O. Snyder, Thomas Hunt and Charles W. Murray, of Hampstead.

Many places gushed forth springs of crystal waters that now are no more, and the creeks in the lowlands only have but half the flow they had in by gone days. The planting of the trees was directed by Prof. Harry Fogle.

Mrs. Wm. H. Shower entertained the members of the sewing circle at her home on Foundry avenue on Thursday evening May 2nd. very pleasantly and served abundant refreshments. The Misses Addie and Emma Trump entertained them very nicely on the evening of the 25th.

The communion services in Emanuel were largely attended. The altar decorations were fine, with special music by the choir. Rev. Lau held the large congregation to the closest attention to a sermon appropriate for the occasion, after which he administered the sacrament to three hundred or more members, among which were thirteen young persons received by confirmation on Saturday previous. At 7.30 P. M. the morning services were continued and were attended.

A prospective sale at the coach shop on Saturday morning brought a large crowd of persons to town so that hitching places were at a premium, but some legal process stopped the sale to the disappointment of the prospective buyers.

It is of chestnut finished in the natural grain of which the Dr. is proud and which is a credit to Mr. George Rupp, of Lineboro, who manufactured the same.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Wentz on North Main street, Wednesday May 8th., at 3 P. M. and left them a big fat girl baby.

Mr. C. Robert Brilhart, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brilhart, south of town, was pealing bark in the woods Thursday morning and, in an attempt to cut off a small limb, the axe slipped and struck the instep of his foot severing the artery and cutting the foot clean across. Dr. Denner, who was called, had some difficulty in stopping the flow of blood.

HOFFMANVILLE

Your correspondent wishes to congratulate you on the semi-weeqly Sentinel and will do all to make it a success as far as sending news is concerned, but will say here for the benefit of all readers who are interested in Hoffmanville Items that our town is too small to furnish very much news per week as Hoffmanville, as a town, is composed of four houses and an M E. Church, two of which houses are now unoccupied; one is occupied by a few of the surviving members of the Belt family and one is an up-to-date country store and dwelling combined the working of the dynamite factory, near here, the M. E. church was badly damaged by an explosion of dynamite and although repaired and used again as a place of worship a great many members withdrew their letters and joined other churches. The church is now used by only a small handfull of people who hold S. S. every Sunday and Rev. Lewis, of Middletown charge, preachers every two weeks. But on the extreme edge of Hoffmanville is erected a modern Public Schoolhouse, of which our neighboring farmers are very proud and there is an enrollment of 45 scholars which aught to entitle our present teacher, Miss Margaret Foard, to an assistant as I think she has as much as she can manage with the different grades to teach.

Miss Meryl Lawson is ill with pneumonia.

Mrs. Randolph Adams spent from Saturday until Tuesday with Mrs. John Eckard.

Mr. and Mrs. Lambert, of Hampstead, spent Saturday and Sunday with J. L. Eckard's family.

Your correspondent is suffering with a severe toothache and must either bear with the pain or drive 7 miles to the nearest Dr. or dentist. Don't some young Dr. wish to locate in a good paying neighborhood? Hoffmanville is 7 miles from Manchester where our nearest medical assistance can be obtained. A patient taken ill suddenly could be dead before help arrived. Don't let all the Drs. inquest of homes come. One or two is enough.
