SIDE TWO

manifest in her welfare has given her great happiness and really has done good and I venture the remark that if the different orders of Society would oftener prescribe a medicine so pleasant to take the World would be a happier place to live in. Permit us all to return you our grateful wishes for your welfare Aunt Isabella wishes to be remembered to Mrs Morris Miss Hollingsworth Mrs Murray and family and is very anxious to know how little Harry is. and love to Sarah and Margaret who was so kind to her in her sickness. And finally Mrs Rosie comes in to say that her kind love must also accompany this to you and your family and accept from me the assurance that I will be happy to answer all your enquiries

Respectfully Your
humble Servant
Robert Rosie
