At a meeting this week of the clergymen of this city together with a lay representative of the several churches a committee was appointed to call upon the city council in the interest of a sane celebration of the fourth of July. The action of the council in prohibiting the sale and discharge of explosives for the celebration of the fourth was heartily approved. It was felt, however, that the abolishment of the noise that made the day one to be dreaded should be followed by arrangements for what is coming to be very generally known as a sane celebration of the day. A committee was appointed by the council to confer with the clergymen about a program and arrangements. It is to be hoped that our citizens will give their hearty co-operation and support to this project. This is necessary to its success.

Miss Mary A. Shriver, of Union Mills, The Bride of James S. Kernan, of Utica, N. Y.

At half past eleven o'clock on the morning of the 5th inst, a very pretty June wedding was solemnized, in St. Mary's Chapel, Union Mills, which is located in the old family homestead of the late William Shriver, now occupied by Mr. T. Herbert Shriver, and the latter's sister, Miss Mollie O. Shriver.

The bride was Miss Mary Angela Shriver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Shriver. She was the third bride from that family to be united in wedlock in St. Mary's Chapel within a very short term of years, the two that preceded her being her two sisters, Mrs. Leslie W. Brennan, of Utica, N. Y. and Mrs. J. Marshall Jones, of Baltimore, Md. The groom and Mr. James S. Kernan, a prominent young business man of Utica, N. Y. His Eminence, Cardinal Gibbons, following a few appropriate and impressive words to the two persons about to be united for life performed the marriage ceremony.

Nuptial mass followed the marriage ceremony and was celebrated by Mgr. Lynch, of Utica, N. Y.

Mr. Warrick Kernan, a brother of the groom, was best man, and Miss Marion Shriver, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Mr. B. F. Shriver.

The bride's gown was of draped, white satin, entrain, hand embroidered, and roint duchess lace, with tulle veil and orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of lillies of the valley.

The maid of honor was prettily dressed in pink and white chiffon, with picture hat, and she carried sweet peas.

The floral decorations of the chapel were very attractive and were in excellent taste.

At the close of the ceremony in the chapel, the guests enjoyed an elegant seated breakfast, at Avalon, the beautiful home of Mr. B. F. Shriver, which is situated but a short distance from the chapel, a faultlessly kept lawn intervening.

A well trained orchestra furnished delightful music during the breakfast and reception.

After an extended wedding tour, Mr. and Mrs. Kernan will at once go to housekeeping in Utica, N. Y.

All of the automobiles that could be hired in Westminster, as well as a good many other vehicles, were secured to convey the guests to and from the trains.

Among the guests who attended the wedding were the following:

From Utica, N. Y.—

Mrs. Wm. Kernan, mother of the groom; Mr. John D. Kernan, Mrs. Wm. S. Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. F. Kernan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kernan, Mr. Frank Quin, Mr. Geo. Weaver, Mr. ad Mrs. Wm. The Fly Contest In Westminster

The fly contest which was started on April 29th closed on Friday the 31 of May. The Society for the Promotion of the Public Welfare feels that a great deal of good has been accomplished by this contest, and that a wide spread interest, not only in flies but in public health and sanitation, has been aroused which will untimately work for great good not only to the town but to the whole of the county. During the month 99 children entered the contest among whom were 12 colored children and the total amount of flies brought in was 158, 153. We have also learned that nearly every housewife in the town has been killing all the flies possible, and we feel safe in saying that nearly 200,000 flies were killed during the month of May. Allowing for the normal increase, this means that we will on our midst during August as one have two hundred million less flies fly in May means a million in August. In addition to the flies destroyed the merchants report a large sale of fly traps and at this time there are many of them being set out of doors and large numbers of flies are being caught every day, and it is hoped that before the summer is ended that nearly every family in the city will have several traps setting out. In addition to this arrangements have been made for the daily removal of manure, and a large number of persons have said that they will place the manure from their stables and hog pens in the alley each day for removal, and it is hoped that others will see the advantage of this arrangement and take advantage of it for the summer months. The City Council has not yet established a daily garbage service but it is confidently expected that this will soon be done, and thus with the fly traps set, the breeding places being removed and the feeding places as well it is not too much to expect marked results in the campaign during the first year.

Through the courtesy of the management of the Opera House, the Society will be able to distribute the prizes there on the evening of Monday, June 10th, at 8 o'clock, and the public is invited to attend. The full show will be given absolutely free. There will be an address on the subject of public health, and it is hoped that all will be present.

WILLS PROBATED

The will of Shadrack Simpson, deceased, was admitted to probate Monday. All of his property is left to his widow, Ella E. Simpson, who is appointed executrix without bond.

The will of Francis W. Fouke, deceased, was admitted to probate Tuesday. All of his property is left to his widow, who is appointed executrix without bond.

The will of Mrs. Margaret H. Jones, wife of Mr. Charles Jones, of New Windsor, was admitted to probate Tuesday. It disposes of an estate valued at $150,000 and appoints Chas. Jones, the surviving husband, as executor. It was executed August 5, 1911 and was witnessed by Mr. Ernest Stouffer and Dr. Ira E. Whitehill, of New Windsor. After bequeathing some furniture and jewelery to Mrs. Rosa A. Kayler, and some furniture to her husband Mrs. Jones disposes of her estate as follows:

To the Trustees of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal Church, of New Windsor, two $150 per annum ground rents located in Baltimore, which will net $300 per annum, $200 of which is to be used by the trustees for repairs and improvements on the church and $100 toward the payment of the salary of the minister. The above directions are not obligatory as the testatrix leaves the expenditure of the money discretionary with the trustees, no trust being created.

The balance of the estate is bequethed to the Safe Deposit and Trust Company of Baltimore, in trust, to pay out the income as follows: To Mrs. Rosa A. Kaylor, for life, $500 per annum.

To Louise Budd (colored) for life, $100 per annum.

To Charles Jones, surviving husband, one-half of the balance of the income for life or so long as he remains unmarried. Upon his death or remarriage the income to be paid to the testatrix, only child, Dennis Maynard Jones, for his life, and after his death to his child or children for their maintenance and support until the youngest one reaches the age of 21 years.

To Dennie Maynard Jones, only child of testatrix, one-fourth of balance of income until he reaches the age of thirty years and then the other one-fourth, and after his death for the support of his children.

In the event of the death or remarriage of her husband and the death of her son and his children, leaving no descendants whatsoever, and all trusts shall have failed or become determined, the testatrix directs that the corpus of her estate shall be divided and paid out as follows:

To Cordelia H. Jones, of Libertytown, Frederick county, Md., if living, the sum of $10,000, if not living thein to Edna Jones and Downey Jones in equal portions.

To Fannie Simmons Delashmutt, widow of John A. Delashmutt, of Buckeystown, Frederick county, Md., $10,000.

To Helen, Mary Livingston and Emily Delashmutt, daughters of Mrs. Fannie Simmons Delashmutt, each the sum of $10,000.

To the Aged People's Outing Association of Baltimore $10,000.

To the Methodist Preacher's Aid Society of Baltimore $10,000.

All of the rest residue and remainder to the Margaret J. Bennett Home of Baltimore city for Homeless, Needy and Deserving Female Persons, to be known as the "Francis W. Bennett Fund" as a memorial to Francis W. Bennett, husband of Margaret J. Bennett, the founder of said Home.

The income provided for Dennis Maynard Jones, son of testatrix, is not subject to the payment of his debts and cannot be assigned by him in anticipation of the payment of the same.

F. Neal Parke, of this city, is recommended by the testatrix as the attorney to be employed in the settlement of her estate.
