Owing to the fact that the college commencement and the camp of instruction will be held next week, the prizes in the fly contest will not be awarded until Tuesday June 18th. 1912.

Dr. H. M. Fitzhugh, of this city, and Dr. Milton Norris, of Eldersburg this county, attended the session of the American Medical Association at Atlantic City, N. J. this week.

About 250 officers of the Maryland National Guard, in charge of Adjutant General Macklin, will arrive in this city, Sunday, June 9, 1912 (next Sunday) and go into camp on the Thomas farm, near this city where they will remain until Sunday June 16. They come here for instructions by United States officers. Drills will take place each evening. The camp will be equipped with water, electric lights, telephone, about 200 tents etc. The public will be welcome.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Mrs. Ella M. Shipley, of Fairmont, near Gamber, gave a birthday party Tuesday evening, June 4, in honor of her eldest daughter Miss Ethel, it being her eighteenth birthday. The house and lawn were decorated beautifully. At the East end of the lawn stood a long table ladened with refreshments and in the center of the same was the large birthday cake inscribed "Ethel Eighteen". The color scheme was white and lavender and Japanese lanterns furnished the light. Vocal and instrumental music and party plays were the amusement features. Those persent were: Messrs and Mesdames J. W. Barnes, Jno. Spencer, Harry Criswell, Thomas J. Miller, George A. Barnes, D. Talbott Buckingham, B. Frank Gorsuch, Jno. Klee, Hershel Miller, Charles Barnes, Samuel Smith, Lewis Miller, A. L. TANEYTOWN

Some smarty called the telephone exchange about one o'clock A. M. Tuesday. The operator was in bed but got up to learn what was wanted but, after considerable time, failed to receive an answer or response from the party who rang up the exchange. The operator went back to bed and in about half an hour the call was repeated and the operator again failed to find out who had rung. If the party who did such a disreputable thing thinks he or she, as the case may be, did something funny or smart he or she is the only one that thinks so, and if found out should be punished. The party is not known but the line used is.

Mrs. Amos Wantz and daughter Carrie visited relatives in Hanover, Pa., and returned Wednesday evening.

During the thunder storm which passed over this district early Thursday morning the barn on the farm of Howard Hyser was struck by lightning and burned down. Fortunately there was no live stock and very little provender in the barn.

HOFFMANVILLE

Our community received quite a shock when it received the intelligance that Mrs. John W. Grimm was stricken with heart trouble Monday evening at 6.30 P. M. while she was watching her hogs eating grass which she had just given to them. Her husband and daughter Nellie helped her to the house where she passed quietly away in ten minutes afterwards. Mrs. Grimm had been failing fast during the past year and during the last few months of her life her mind was quite weak but she could manage to do her own housework, while her daughter sewed. Besides her husband she is survived by the following children: John W. Grimm Jr., of Phillipsburg, New Jersey; Mrs. Ralph Adams, of Summit Pa., Miss Alice V. Grimm, of Baltimore and Nellie V. Grimm, at home.

The funeral was held Thursday morning 9 A. M. Interment at Grave Run M. E. Church cemetery. The pallbearers were: Messrs. John Fair, Wm. Smith, Adam Smith, Theodore Schaffer, Wesley Masemore and Jno. L. Eckard.

Mr. Wm. Smith has been appointed road supervisor of this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Eckard spent Friday in Glen Rock, Pa.

Clinton Florsted is failing fast. The doctor told his parents that nothing more can be done to help him. They have the deep sympathy of their neighbors and friends as Mr. Clinton is an exceedingly popular young man and is loved and respected by all who know him.

The quarterly conference of the Middletown Circuit will be held Saturday June 8th., in Mt. Tabor M. E. Church, of this place. Luncheon will be served in the basement of the church.

St. Peter's Children's Day services will be held Sunday morning June 16th. An interesting program has been arranged and all who can come will be welcome.

MANCHESTER

Although the Whit Monday committee of the Firemen was under a heavy expense in getting up the different amusements for their festivity, yet they feel well repaid for their venture and have added a neat sum to their treasury. The hotels responded with $10.00 and other business places and private donations amounted to $83.00. The percentage from the merry-go-round was $13.62; from privileges sold $37.90; auxiliary festival $50.92; Ball game $3.33; other amusements $54.11; total $243.93. Expenditures: McCaslin performers and transportation $47.90; C. Co. Reed Band $25.00; Alesia Band (afternoon) 8.00; Printing etc., 17.48; total $93.43. Net Proceeds $150.50. The committee was J. B. Baker, A. H. Geiselman, J. E. Masenhimer, Wm. L. Hoffman and Dr. D. G. Everhart.

The members of the Willing Worker's Aid Society, of Trinity Reformed Church will hold a June Tea and festival in the I. O. F. Hall, on Saturday evening June 15th., where you get your money's worth for a dime, with plenty of fun on the side. The society had a rag sale on Wednesday, all of which is added to the church repair and refurnishing fund.

Mrs. Dr. J. H. Sherman and daughter visited friends in York, Pa., during last week, taking in the great gathering of Brethren at their annual convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lippy, of Westminster, made a flying visit among friends here on Sunday.

Mr. George A. Shower, who has been suffering with rheumatism for several weeks, is convalescing.

Mr. Clarence Ousler, of Baltimore, spent Sunday here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Ousler.

Miss Edna Baker is home from the Union Protestant Hospital, Baltimore on her vacation from the nursing duties at the institution.

Mrs. Washington Musselman and Mrs. Dr. J. F. B. Weaver are visiting friends in Hanover.

A street piano was on our street on Monday.

Mr. Horatio Ousler is having his home on Church street painted.

Mr. J. H. Blocher is having the bay window of his home carried up to the second story. It will add much to the appearance and comfort of the home.

Dr. Wm. R. S. Denner has had his home on North Main street painted which adds much to the appearance.

Mr. Charles W. Grove, of Hanover, has workmen putting on a new roof on his barn at his Germantown farm, which was blown off during the late storm that passed over this section.

Mr. G. T. Palmer is spending the week with his isster, Mrs. H. B. Burgoon on North Main street while Mr. B. and nephew, Gilbert Martin, are visiting friends in Baltimore and seeing the sights of the Monumental city.

UNIONTOWN

Mrs. Joseph Slonaker returned from a visit to Baltimore Monday, accompanied by her granddaughter Myrtle Malehorn.

G. Fielder Gilbert, wife and daughter, came back from their trip to Virginia, last Saturday.

Geo. Slonaker and wife, spent a few days with relatives in Pikesville last week.

Frank Romspert and wife were in Baltimore over Sunday.

Tuesday Edward Formwalt had a barn raising. Supper was served to about sixty persons.

Quite a number of folks in town, and the neighborhood attended the annual meeting of The Church of the Brethren in York the past week.

Children's service will be held in the Lutheran church Sunday morning, June 6 and at Baust church the same day at 7.30 P. M.

Miss Lucile Weaver was unfortunate on Tuesday by straining the muscles of her foot which interferes with her getting around.

Visitors in town the past week were: Charles E. Slonaker and wife, of Baltimore, and B. O. Slonaker and wife, of Taneytown, at Samuel Harbaugh's; Mrs. Ellen Segafoose, and daughter, Mrs. Joseph Wailes, at Obediah Fleagles; Jacob Bankard, of Hagerstown, at his father's, William Bankard; Thomas Cover and wife, and Mrs. Mollie Willis, of Winchester, at James Cover's.

Roy H. Singer left for Easton Wednesday and will return with his family Friday.

Mrs. Frank Bowersox, after attending the annual meeting, will visit her son, Rev. Hixon Bowersox and wife, at Rossville, Pa.

Cards are out for the wedding of Myers Englar, one of our leading merchants, and Miss Margaret Repp at her home Wednesday June 12 at 2 P. M. Invitations have also been received to the wedding of S. Lee, oldest son of Samuel Englar, to Miss Laura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. B. Hearn all of Baltimore, on June 12, at 6.30 P. M., at the First Baptist church Baltimore.

CARROLLTON

On last Thursday evening, the Snydersburg Grange held a social at the home of Mrs. Mary Martin, one of its members. There were about fifty in attendance. The evening was spent in social conversation, music and singing, the singing being led by G. A. Leister with Mrs. Miles Sharrer at the organ. At a late hour all were invited to the dining room where refreshments were served in abundance..

On last Saturday, while Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shaffer were returning from Hampstead, they came in contact with a large black snake near Richard's Mill which was killed by Mr. Shaffer. The snake measured six feet in length.

On Sunday morning our enterprising blacksmith and his wife wee ron the way to children's day services at Wesley he also killed the same snake or at least thought so after having much difficulty in cutting a large pole to kill it with. This is one on you, Mr. Blacksmith.

Children's Day services which were held at Bethel last Sunday were largely attended and a success in every way.

The cut worms in this section are cutting the corn. Some of the farmers harrowed the fields over and planted them again. They have now cut it all off the second time.

The wheat and grass look very promising for a good crop.

MELROSE

Miss Clara Dohme, of Baltimore visited J. Albert Zepp and family Saturday and Sunday last. She expects to sail for Bremen, Germany, July 1st, and will spend the summer abroad. When asked if she did not fear the trip after the Titanic catastrophe she replied: "Oh no, they will be more careful in the future".

We learn that the Chestnut Hill Ore Mine farm is also to be sold in the near future. Perhaps the extension of our railroad may be a reality.

Wantz's Union Sunday School had a good attendance Sunday morning. Miss Clara Dohme of Baltimore, visited the school Mr. Edward Krideler, for nearly half a century the superintendent of Krideler's Sunday school, will visit Wentz's school.

IN MEMORIAM

EASTON—In remembrance of my dear husband, James Easton, who died one year ago to-day, June 7, 1911.

Farewell husband, thou hast left me,
Here thy loss I deeply feel.
But its God that hath bereft me,
He can all my sorrow heal.
By his wife.

God takes our loved ones from our homes
But never from our hearts.
Do we forget? Nay, in each heart
There lies a secret place, where,
Hid from mortal eyes,
Dwells, strong and true
A love that never dies, nor can forget.
By his loving daughter Rose.

Past his suffering, past his pain;
Cease to weep for tears are vain;
Calm the tumult of thy breast,
For he who suffered is at rest.
O, chide us not for weeping
For sorrow shades our brow,
He has gone from us to heaven,
And we have no father now.
By his daughter Alice.

IN MEMORIAM.

SHIPLEY—In sad and loving remembrance of my dear husband Wilbur, who departed this life 3 years ago, June 5, 1909.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

At an early evening as he was walking
He fondly said good bye
But only left us for awhile,
In other hands to die.
Oh, how sudden was the summons,
When word came that he was dead
For he who left us full of life
Was brought home to us dead.
How we watched to see him coming.
How we waited to hear him call
How we miss you dearest husband and father.
No tongue on earth can tell.
By his loving widow Ella and children.
