0499

1875 October - November Caspar Morris incoming letters 1994

SIDE ONE

1306 Filbert St.

Dr. Caspar Morris,

My esteemed friend,

When we parted last summer from thy dear granddaughters, Mary, informed me that she expected to return to school this fall although Cornelia would be obliged to remain at home as her health always suffers from the confinement of a city life. Having heard that their father has met with a