ECHOES FROM TANEYTOWN
Taneytown Happenings Always Interest Our Readers

After reading of so many people in our town who have been cured by Doan's Kidney Pills, the question naturally arises: "Is this medicine equally successful in our neighboring towns?" The generous statement of this Taneytown resident leaves no room for doubt on this point.

John T. Bowers, Taneytown, Md., says. "My business requires me to sit in a stooped position most of the time, and I believe that this was the cause of my kidney complaint. There was a constant, dull, dragging pain across my kidneys that caused me much misery. I suffered from rheumatic pains and at times was stiff and lame. The kidney secretions were also irregular in passage and caused me much annoyance and inconvenience. I finally procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me about immediate relief. The kidneys were soon restored to normal condition and I felt better in every way. I gladly testify to the great merit of Doan's Kidney Pills."

PLATFORM SCORES JUDICIARY RECALL

Chicago.—An "untrammeled and independent judiciary" is the big feature of the Republican platform adopted in the National Convention.

On this point the platform says:

"The Republican party reaffirms its intention to uphold at all times the authority and integrity of the courts, both State and Federal, and it will ever insist that their powers to enforce their process and to protect life, liberty and property shall be preserved inviolate.

"An orderly method is provided under our system of government by which the people may, when they choose, alter or amend the constitutional provisions which underlie that government. Until these constitutional provisions are so altered or amended, in orderly fashion, it is the duty of the courts to see to it that when challenged they are enforced."

The denunciation of the proposed recall of the judiciary is couched in strong and comprehensive language and is purposely made the paramount issue in the platform.

The proposition to recommend the direct preferential primary in Presidential nominations was defeated in the committee by a majority of one and no mention is made of this in the platform.

A revision of the currency and banking laws is recommended to permit of the establishment of "agricultural credit societies" to aid the farmers in the moving of the crops.

The pronouncement reaffirms the administration policy of conservation and commits the party to Federal aid in controlling the Mississippi River at flood time.

Stringent laws are recommended to protect the high seas from a recurrence of the Titanic disaster.

A strong tariff plank is incorporated in the platform, reaffirming the protective tariff principle, but holding that excessive tariffs should be removed as soon as they are plainly shown to be excessive.

The platform also commits the party to:

The prohibition of campaign contributions by corporations.

The establishment of the parcels post.

A strong navy and the upbuilding of the merchant marine. (No mention is made of "ship subsidy.").

An extension of civil service to all departments of the government.

A "Federal Trade Commission" to take charge of the enforcement of laws against big corporations.

The platform closes with a glowing tribute to the statesmanship of President Taft and links his administration with those of McKinley and Roosevelt.

Regarding the trusts the platform says:

"The Republican party favors the enactment of legislation supplementary of the existing anti-trust act which will define as criminal offenses those specific acts that uniformly mark attempts to restrain and to monopolize trade, to the end that those who honestly intend to obey the laws may have a guide for their action and that those who aim to violate the law may more surely be punished."

THE NATIONAL GRANGE

Conducted by Charles M. Gardner, Editor of the National Grange, Westfield, Mass.

HEALTH TOPIC OF MEETINGS

Many Lively Gatherings Held as Result of Call of Granite State Governor.

A great deal of interest has recently been aroused in New Hampshire by the call of Governor Robert P. Bass that all the organizations in the state should hold at least one meeting during the winter season, devoted to the topic of "Health." The response throughout the Granite State has been extensive and far-reaching, resulting in many lively meetings of all sorts, certain to greatly stimulate interest in this very important subject.

The principal response came from the Granges, and throughout the entire length and breadth of the state, rousing Grange meetings have been held, putting great emphasis upon the importance of healthy, temperate and well-ordered living. The way the idea was carried out in one Grange gives a glimpse of them all and is exceedingly suggestive of practical benefit and of genuine entertainment at the same time. The meeting is thus reported:

"After music by the Grange the lecturer told a story of the efforts and final failure of a trained nurse to answer the question, 'What is health?' and asked each member to be prepared to write a definition of health to be passed in in a prize contest at the close of the program. As the contestants were not required to sign their names, all but one present entered. The prize, a bottle of Balm-Elixir liniment, was awarded Mrs. Delia J. Stevens, whose answer was 'To be clean in body, mind and soul.' Every one responded to a roll-call, either giving a recitation, telling a story or reading a clipping—humorous or otherwise—relating to health; and Rev. Geo. A. Bennett gave an interesting talk on 'Biblical Laws of Health as Laid Down for the Jews.' The subject sounds dry; not so the talk, as the speaker's fund of illustrations and stories is apparently unlimited."

Conference of State Lecturers.

One feature of the recent Eastern trip made by National Lecturer N. P. Hull was the bringing together of all the state lecturers of New England for a conference, to make plans on the work ahead. The gathering was held at a hotel in Worcester and State Lecturer Evan F. Richardson of Massachusetts acted as the host of the occasion. All the New England state lecturers were there and all the plans discussed looked towards making more nearly uniform and therefore more efficient the Lecture Hour work in all the states. The conference was conducted on very informal lines and proved exceedingly practical and helpful.

The lecturers present were: National Lecturer N. P. Hull of Dimondale, Mich.; State Lecturers Evan F. Richardson of Millis, Mass.; Andrew L. Talker of Meredith Center, N. H.; B. Walker McKeen of Freyeburg, Me.; E. A. Hallett of St. Johnsburg, Me.; F. E. Blakeman of Oronoque, Ct.; Charles R. Magoon of East Greenwich, R. I. It is expected to introduce topics of general New England interest for discussion simultaneously in all the Granges, and thus to make the Order count for progress along practical lines. A conference of New England masters is to be held in Boston on May 9th, looking towards the same end; and also to make plans for a New England party to attend the National Grange session at Spokane, Wash., next December.

One Grange Much Alive.

One of the liveliest Granges to be found anywhere is Park Grange, No. 454, located at Olema, in the state of Washington. It was started scarcely one year ago, with but 37 charter members. During the twelve months this Grange has nearly doubled its membership, has built a comfortable hall, bought and paid for an organ and has all the other conveniences necessary for the carrying on of the work. An information bureau is conducted, by means of which the buying and selling wants of the members are made known, to the advantage of all.

This Grange has taken up the subject of road improvement and has rendered valuable assistance in several nearby good roads undertakings. Besides all this "solid work" the Grange in question has put in lots of good times, socials, etc., and in every way is pushing with the true hustle of the west.

Farming Trains.

In some states the Granges have been instrumental in securing the running of "better farming trains," both steam and electric, that have brought incalculable benefit to the farmers. The same Grange interest that started the train induced the people to come out and see it, so that a great number of the farmers were reached.

Big Deal.

Grocer—What are you doing there?

Clerk—Mr. Jones has ordered a bushel of potatoes, and I'm looking him up in Bradstreet.

The Trouble.

Lawyer—Don't you think I acquitted myself well in that trial?

Friend—Very well. It is a pity you didn't do as much for your client.
