1875 October - November Cooper Morris Wyoming Letters 1994

SIDE TWO

sorry I be so pressed for time as I am unable just now to call on you - but hope to do so shortly. Meanwhile if you could return this list with your remarks, it may enable me to order the trees at once.

We are very anxious about Shipwitt Cook, who is I fear in an alarmingly critical state. We have sent him South with his mother, and I suppose they left Balt. yesterday. It is the greatest full consolation that Divine Grace has so moulded his pure and trustful character, that he is fully and cheerfully resigned to whatever his Lord and Master has in store for him.

With Mary's and my own love to Mrs. Morris and yourself, I am

Faithfully yours
