My Dear Mr Hall

I return to you the note you kindly inclosed for me to read. I am truly thankful for every favour you recieve, and pray that you may enjoy a rich harvest of success to crown your toil. I wish I could endow you with a thousand tongues that you might plead the cause of the industrious Blind; and that I could, for the time, give you ubiquity, that you might present in your own person to every heart & eye in our community, the double spectacle of provocation, and the energy which overcomes obstacles by its
