Deaths

ELIAS H. YINGLING

Mr. Elias H. Yingling died at the residence of his brother, Mr. Wm. Yingling, in Cranberry Valley, Tuesday, November 26, 1912, aged 73 years 2 months and 24 days. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Eliza Wimert, of this city, and by the following brothers: Emanuel, of York, Pa.; Wm., of Cranberry Valley; Edward, of near Roop's Mill and Alfred, of this city. He is also survived by a number of nieces and nephews, among them being Mr. Luther E. Wimert, of this city. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. Lau, of Manchester, were held at Bachman's church, in Bachman's Valley, Thursday morning, November 28th., and the interment was in the adjoining cemetery.

Mr. James M. Stoner had charge of the funeral arrangements.

TANEYTOWN

Lieutenant Thaddeus G. Crapster and bride visited friends here last week. Mrs. Crapster was a Texas lady. They will reside at Roanoake, Va., after they return from their wedding trip.

Mr. Ezra K. Reaver died Friday night from the effects of a surgical operation performed on him several months ago at the Frederick Hospital in the hope of getting relief from a malady of which he had been a great sufferer for sometime previous. Funeral Monday afternoon and interment in the Lutheran Cemetery. He is survived by a widow and a son and daughter.

Mrs. Elizabeth R. Shank, who had been ill for several months, died Sunday last. She leaves four sons and athree daughters. Funeral Tuesday morning at the house in Taneytown and interment in the cemetery at Woodsboro.

Professor Marashleian, a native of Armenia and a noted vocalist and violinist, gave an entertainment in the Opera House Sunday afternoon to a crowded house.

Miss Ellen Long returned from a ten day visit to her grandma Mrs. Lavina Long, of Baltimore.

Miss Josephine Evans spent Thanksgiving with her grandma Shoemaker.

Messrs Clide and Raymond Hesson, students of Gettysburg College, spent Thanksgiving with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. J .Hesson.

An annual stag supper was given in Mr. S. C. Ott's ice cream room Wednesday night. The bill of fare sonsisted of roast goose, sauerkraut, mashed potatoes, cranberry sauce, celery and potato chips. The refreshment was Anhauser Bush.

WAKEFIELD

Mrs. Charles Winter and two children, of Springdale, spent Tuesday of last week with her mother Mrs. Daniel Dickensheets.

Some of our young folks went to Baltimore Saturday.

Little Miss Elizabeth Winter is spending a week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Dickensheets.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Haines, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Haines and daughter of near New Windsor, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fritz.

A few flakes of snow fell here Sunday morning.

We had a very interesting sermon Sunday afternoon by Rev. L. F. Murray, of Uniontown.

Some of our people attended protracted meeting at Warfieldsburg Sunday night last.

Mrs. Fannie Buckey and Mr. Chas. Fritz, are on the sick list.

MANCHESTER

That our firemen were aroused on Sunday morning when it was found that some miscreant had forgotten Saturday night that we live in a civilized community and are governed by laws for the protection of life and property. They tore the mourning off of the Fireman's Hall and wrapped part of it around a post and the rest around the pump at the Washington House. At a special meeting of the company resolutions of respect were adopted for the draping of the hall for thirty days in honor of their deceased member, Charles W. Motter, and then to have it subject to such vandalism. No wonder the firemen and the town in general were at fever heat about it. At a special meeting of the company Monday evening a reward of $25 was offered for any information which may lead to the arrest of the guilty party and we would not be surprised if a detective is not employed.

The community owes a heartfelt sympathy to Mr. Simon Giggard and family in their dark hour of sorrow at the loss of their son Paul Elmer who committed suicide by shooting himself Saturday last at the home of Mrs. Cooper, at Unionville, Pa. The tragic death of Mr. Cooper some weeks ago by being cut down by a horse which he was trying to twitch, preyed upon his mind, complicated with indigestion made him despondent and he committed the deed about eleven A. M. Undertaker Wink brought his remains to his father's home Sunday from where he was burried Tuesday at Leisters Church. He was aged 22 years. The pallbearers were: Herring Brown, Carroll Hunt, Wm. Ebaugh, Carroll Yingling, Chas. Stephan and Wm. Ebaugh.

The remains of Miss Ida Purdy were brought here Sunday and laid at rest in a family lot. Rev. Lau officiated. The funeral services were held at the home of Mr. Shank where she died. She was aged 29 years. She was well known here where she visited Mr. and Mrs. George Hare last summer.

Mrs. Jacob Zehring died at her home in Hanover, Pa., Friday last after a short illness. She was a native of this district and a daughter of the late Wm. Walter who was a resident here for a number of years. She is survived by her husband and an only son, Rev. Jacob W. Zehring, a Reformed minister of Ostuburg, Pa., and by three sisters Mrs. Whilman, of Littlestown, Pa., Mrs. Wilhelm, of Hanover, Pa., and Mrs. Dr. Jno. F. B. Weaver, of this place, and one brother, John Walter, of Baltimore.

Thefuneral of Mr. Wm. Kueller was largely attended Saturday. Dr. T. S. Land officiated. The services were held in Trinity church. He was aged 74 years and 4 months. He is survived by his widow, five sons and one daughter. Alonzo, at Alesia, Geo. at Poughkeepsie, N. Y.; Clarence, of Baltimore and Charles and Edward of this place and one daughter Miss Estella, at home.

I tell you our Democratic friends whooped thing up in fine style Friday evening and had a fine parade void of all bad feeling and in a cheerful manner sent their fun home to the vanquished parties who received it in the same cheerful manner and mingled with the paraders as if they were in the same boat. Hampstead was well represented while all sections of the district had their factors in the noise making. The Hampstead, Pleasant Hill and Alesia bands with the home drum corps enlivened the occasion all along the line. Fifty or more homes and public places were illuminated and many decorated nicely so that upon the whole it was quite a successful affair.

Dr. Land Worshipful Master, John B. Baker and Dr. D. G. Everhart, wardens of Lebanon Lodge No. 175 A. F. A3. M. enjoyed an auto trip to Baltimore Wednesday of last week and attended the sessions of the Grand Lodge.

The first snow storm visited this section Sunday morning and it certainly was ideal while it lasted.

Dr. T. S. Land is spending a short vacation with friends in Pa. There will be no services in his church here Sunday.

Prof. Bowlus with some of his scholars and friends are in rehearsal to give an entertainment in the I. O. O. F. Hall on the evening of the 13 proximo for the benefit of the school library and should be well patronized.

Mrs. Geo. A. Shower who has been indisposed for several weeks without improvement, called a consultation of Dr's. J. H. Preston and Wm. R. S. Denner. They revealed the fact to the family that she was suffering from organic heart trouble and at this writing she is in a very weakened condition. Her daughter, Mrs. Maurice Unger and son Robert of Manilus, N. Y., arrived at the home Tuesday.

The pets of Mr. Chas. W. Motter found ready sale. The canaries are in homes here. The parrot Bryan is in Baltimore and the fish are sporting in their miniature pond at the home of Miss Mary Menchey, while the choice plants are being cared for in a number of homes. His pride, the large palm is at its new home in the bank.

MILLER'S

Mrs. Hoover, of Hanover, Pa., was visiting her son, George Hoover, and family here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs: Jacob Zepp spent last Friday in Baltimore.

Misses Abbie and Grace Brown spent several days last week at Hanover, Pa., where Miss Abbie had her tonsils removed by Dr. T. H. Wertz.

We were sorry to learn of the death of Miss Ida Purdy, of Baltimore, which occurred last week at the home of Jno. Shank, of near Hampstead where she had been visiting. Miss Purdy visited at this place quite frequently during the summer.

Charles Brown and wife visited Everett Miller and wife last Sunday.

The J. O. A. M. Lodge of Alesia attended preaching services here, Sunday afternoon.

George Albaugh, of near here, had the misfortune to fall from a straw stack and sprain his knee so badly that he is unable to walk without the aid of crtuches.

Samuel Hare killed two porkers last week which weighed 415 and 185. Henry Rinehart two weighing 313 and 318 lbs.

A WEDDING RECEPTION

Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Conaway gave a wedding dinner Sunday Nov. 24, 1912, in honor of their son Roy and his bride. The evening was spent in social conversation, music and singing. After wishing the bride and groom much success and happiness the guests departed for their homes. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames Columbus Conaway, Roy Conaway, Thomas Gosnell, Clarence Conaway, M. H. Penn, James Pickett, Charles Conaway, Johnie Pickett, States Gist and Charles Koontz; Mesdames V. K. Betts, Emma Fleming Louisa Farver, Ruth Shipley and Carrie Pickett; Misses Clandia Gosnell, Emma Conaway, Beatrice Chaney, Francis Gosnell, Lizzie Farver, Minnie Conaway, Ada Fleming, Pearl Reese, Lizzie Wolbert, Aline Fleming, Lillie Farver, Alma Pickett, Eva Gosnell, Edna Gosnell, Golda Fleming, Mable Shipley, Mary Betts, Edna Pickett, Marie Gosnell and Nellie E. BACHMAN'S VALLEY

The revival services which have been in progress at Bixlers U. B. Church closed Wednesday evening November 20th. Rev. Mr. Renshaw, of Philadelphia, Pa., conducted the services. He is one of the best pastors that has been here for some time. He has the best wishes of our congregation and we hope he will favor us with a visit before many years are past.

The farmers are taking advantage of the late fall and are getting most of their plowing done. A few have corn out yet.

Rabbit hunting is all the sport now. Some of the hunters say they have gotten not less than 40 rabbits this season.

Miss Emma Erb and Mr. Clinton Warehime, both of this place, were married November 21, 1912, at Carroll Reformed church parsonage near Westminster, by Rev. J. W. Reinecke. Their many friends wish them a long and happy life.

Cold weather is now here. Do not get scared about winter. Get ready at once with plenty of good wood and you will be all right when the snow flurries fly.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of my dear brother, George Washington Carr.
In the grave yard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one I love so dearly
In the lonely, silent grave.
Rest dear brother, thy work is o'er
Thy willing hands will toil no more;
A faithful brother, so true and kind,
A better brother we could not find.
Sleep on dear brother, sweetly sleep.
We need you, but God knows best.
By his sister,
Mrs. Leonard Frizzell.
