C 5 4 9

1876 January-February Cooper Morris incoming Letters 1994 that may be preferred. In either case however my object, I trust, will be accomplished, of assuring thee of our appreciation of thy kind interest and valuable aid, in the trial through which we have been, and are passing. — With my kind regards to thy wife, and hoping she will not be much frightened by the accompanying,

SIDE TWO

I am truly thy friend

D. Sewell Jr

P.S. I enclose the address of Fanny McGraw.