C 5 5 3

1876 January-February Cooper Morris Incoming Letters 1994

SIDE ONE

My Dear Doctor

I do not know when I have been so astonished as I was by the contents of your note. I had entirely forgotten all that passed on the subject of the use of Alcohol in the hospital service, and till you drew my attention to it had not noticed that any allegation was made of greater freedom in the application of it by yourself than by others. In the discharge of my duty as Manager I sought out all modes of curtailing